

January 5 - 1925

Commodore L. E. Harris has passed away on the morning of January 2nd. Thus divinely removing at that one by one our leaders are being mustered into the ranks of the Supreme Commander. For 8 years - 11 months and 29 days. Our Heavenly Father extended his merciful care and mercy to him that in right suffile with known the details of a useful citizen - Funeral service was held at the Baptist church where he had many times he had done his ministry insipred from years he had taught a class of the Sunday School - The following Comrades attended the Services - Brown - Douglas - Derry - Johnson - Rev. Buckner Pastor of the Baptist church presiding the funeral service - Paying tribute to the many good deeds - and Christian life of Commodore Harris "How full of dread - How full of hope - how much inevitable Death. of hope for One has said - the dead is forever in joy the hope is filled with immortality - Pass along beginning of life - go to thy grave weeping.
The tears are but shadows more that haunt the vale of death."

Showing the small attendance there is no apparent excuse for the absence of some of the Commanders - Our Par is gradually becoming smaller and the lack of interest is becoming more apparent - when it should be the means of strengthening the tie of comradeship and a more active interest in the pleasures of uniting together and enjoy the social exposures that will in a few years become extinct.

By invitation the Par will meet at the the subject over for further action It was a consensus to have with us a number of good friends that took interest and participated in the Social aspect. Our Truancy made a fine show - talk - The person Long los received other various business but nothing academic - also another a number of fine financial items displayed in the Parade - Our Harry entertained with several soloists from the neighborhood -

Yours every pleasure - Yours ever yours in staying during the time of your stay You true the old adage - that we can travel by horse and car and caravans a spirit which is human kindness - also that we travel through the world and own it think with friendship - Friendship among men is the true spirit - it is a mountain made up of little matters - but of strong read and approved. Again by this absence Comrades here shown their lack of interest in assisting in maintaining the principles of our organization. This is an source of regret and a condition that calls a refection on their record as soldiers - no business to attend to - and a response to much at the home of Comrade Hargrave

By the kind invitation of Capt - McGingal - Original Lyon Post, 186. G.C.A. I attended the Patriotic exercises held in the Chapel at the Boys School - The program for the occasion consisted of Entertainment by Rev. Hufmann Chaplain of the School Followed by Music by the band of the School - Accompanied by singing by the entire School - The band sang of Bamburg - displaying a very excellent and appropriate address - Admiring them of the concert requirements necessary to qualify us for duty. Capt McGingal in his usual kind way - expressed his humble and sympathetic to the commands.
For their attendance - It which command Chinnow replied on behalf of the Post expressing the pleasure of his members at being the guests of the School.
There is no doubt that these young men will have great influence in shaping the future lives of many of these boys - after closing the services - the Rev were taken to the cemetery adjoining the school and witness the placing of a large bouquet on the graves of the deceased inmates - attended by a very beautiful ceremony - No person who witnessed the exercises at the Chapel - can忘 the air of the conveying comfort to be found in the touch of the soldier - their own humor knows is so nice as to ascertain -

"N. Green Ranch." Dixie McGehee kindly took the men of his guests to the camp in his car and took them to their horses after the days engagement under the Capt. Commander and his wife were present - also we had visit us Mrs. Mrs. Orgal - a Confederate veteran. He is the usual master of the bar - to have Mr. Orgal so unengaged is more of our social meetings - The singing of a bill - announced that we should assemble for chow - On entering the large dining room of the Camp. Four large tables capable of seating 12 persons each - was arranged surrounded a bunting was raised by Miss Alice McGehee - Limento of the school.
Ensuring as waiters - some had very nice plates filled with - meat - potatoes - beans - biscuits etc.
Good coffee or the wine - for chow - good home
- made apple pie. all of this good chow was prepared by Nellie Lueker as chef - After fully satisfying our appetites - we returned to the shack - Mrs. McGehee as hostess - served coffee to the ladies - The Band of the School - Played quite a number of pieces. Quite a comic performance by two colored inmates of the school caused many one to enjoy a hearty laugh. Many fine short talks including personal stories told

 I.B.L. Mrs Ray Jackson recited the history of our flag. The Our Union Society did the greater part of the day - delivered in his usual calm manner. A very excellent address going back to 1492 tracing our hallowed pedigree of the flag.
 The Boy Scouts under their Scout Master Dr Miller recited their pledge to the flag.
 The Society of Friends presented a very fitting oration. Yet - Many private contributions from relatives of our September 26- 1926.

Original & from 186. G. S. R. Not at the home of Cormack Dacy - Cormacks present - Brown - Carter - Henry Dacy - Johnson

The minutes of last meeting read and Approved - again it is approved. From the Small attendance of the Cormacks at this monthly meeting - that the interest is now only five of the twelve Cormacks are present. Two are physically unable to attend. There is now one in the generation of the Rev. Two others absent who should be present. That we know seem offer no reasonable excuse for being absent.

It is evident that the day is no longer distant when Original & from Rev will be discontinued unless there is some interest taken by the Cormacks. Let us all know in writing that the two of Cormack's summed on the butte piles - anxious company may sell attended by Cormacks. That we earnestly trust that Cormack's no to keep alive in our minds this tie that never has or never will be severed under any other conditions.
Cormack Dacy manifested his usual courtesy by referring to those present - plots of land apple and peach - and to those who enjoy the use a good cigar - The Rev - agreed to meet on Oct 3d. with Cormack Johnson at the home of Mrs & Mrs Ralph Cormack.

Arrived at Lyon Post 186. G.A.R. met at the home of Comrade Johnson in the home of Ralph Kinnaman. Comrades Foster Douglas, Haydon, Tracy Johnson Frost - one third of the Comrades present.
Minutes of last meeting was read and approved. No question being present the four Comrades present enjoyed a full hour in consuming various refreshments stock of groceries and oats with a glass of home made grape juice made the hour a time of real pleasure & relaxation that all the Comrades could not be prone to enjoy the warm comradeship that we from enjoyed. Our conference to meet at the home of Comrade Douglas on Mon. 27.

Sunday Oct 31-1926.

Sup't. McGeorge invited the Comrades of the Post to join the American Legion members & Kynander Post to attend a Patriotic observance of Armistice Day. Comrades Isaac B. Lester and H. E. Johnson were present. The exercises were interesting and very appropriate. Prof. McTroy Post Adj'tant & Post Marshal delivered a very welcome discourse pertaining to his experiences during the world war - and the signing of the Armistice. The audience consumed two hours. The time spent will no doubt prove beneficial to all who were present.

Dear Sirs
My compliments
Yours etc

December 18-1926.

According to agreement of last meeting - Bridge & Lyon Pet-186. G.A.R. met at the home of Harry Lepin - in the room of Comrade Webster The following named Comrades were present: Comdr. Douglas - Brown - Loyal Lucy - Webster Johnson - The minutes of last meeting was read and approved. On account of this being our last meeting in the year it was decided to alter the officers to serve the coming year 1927. Comrade Comdr. Comrade Comrade Lucy - he was unanimously elected Comrade Douglass name that Comrade Johnson be elected recorder Comrade Douglass suggested that the election be by ballot election which was approved This suggestion was carried - The meeting of his old Comrades was a great pleasure to our guests and helpers. Comrade - who was manifested by his hearty greeting - cheer - plaudits and the surprise have taking - acting a smoky opposition - so helpless that he is compelled to spend his time either lying in his bed - or sitting in an invalid chair - it is evident that he endures one miserable or unmerciful existence - chungree disposition with faith in his supreme command -
