

BRYANT FAMILY

The JOSIAH BRYANT family listed below (with his family) is the earliest known record of the BRYANT family, that I have. (If Josiah had any brothers or sisters they are unknown to me at this time (July 1, 1960))

Some time before 1799 this Bryant family moved to Ky. settling in what is now known as Bryantsville, KY. He was the founder of that town. (I have been unable to verify any of the above, however if does tell something about this Bryant family and perhaps the above information is correct. (Agness Bryant)

WILLIAM BENNETT BRYANT'S lived all of their lives in Ind. except six years in Missouri and four years in Iowa. They lived on the farm of Bennett's father (Anderson Bryant) until the house burned and Bennett buildt a new house. They later moved to Danville, Ind. (the county seat of Hendricks Co. Ind.) when Bennett Bryant was elected Sheriff of this county. Bennett B ryant was in the Civil War two of his brothers (James and Woodson) and fifteen cousins also served.

Bennett and Cassandra Bryant are buried at Minburn, Iowa.

Cassandra Bohannon father was Abraham Bohannon married Polly Pearson (a Quaker) who later became a Baptist as Abraham was. The above information concerning Bennett and Cassandra Bryant was sent to me from Mrs. Rose Bryant-Gottschalk--deu. of Bennett and Cassandra Bryant--Rose lived most of her married life at Minburn, Iowa--but is now making her home with her dau. Helen Smith, of Iowa City, Iowa. (1961)

-----from records of Hendricks Circuit Court-Danville, Ind. there is a record of a ANDERSON BRYANT and SALLY OSBORNE married in 1833.-----

SARAH ANN OSBORNE wife of ANDERSON BRYANT--came from a family who owned slaves in K y. Craborchard, Rockcastle Co. Ky. (she was born at Mount Vernon, Ky.) They came there from the Carolina's. The OSBORNES were tall in statue and was thought to be of the family of OSBORNES in England, who owned large plantations in Carolina. She was one of a twin (I've been unable to find out if Sarah Ann twin lived or if she had any other brothers or sisters) (A, B,). She was nursed by a neg ro mammy and her father gave her a neg ro servant named 'Sukey'. (believe this servant was given to Sarah Ann as a wedding present, but was probably sold in Ky. (A.B.)--Her daughter (Hunt Mollie Hays) said 'there never was any thing quite good enough for her mother and of her father that any thing was good enough for him.'

The ANDERSON BRYANT'S settled at Springtown, Ind.--Anderson helped to build the first road between Plainfield and Styleville, Ind. which is now State Road # 40 and from coast to coast. He made enough money to buy a farm near Coatesville, Ind. There they lived and reared their family of eight children. This Springtown farm had a spring and flowing well on it. Aunt Mollie said 'she remembered when as a girl they used to take their clothes to the spring to wash and in that early day there was much underbrush and thick growth--also plenty of snakes and whenever a snake came into view they would 'slither him with' billin' water from their gourds'. Aunt Mollie states 'my daddy took the Cincinnati Gazette' and later the Indianapolis Journal'. The Bryant's were Republicans and Primitive Baptists.

The first home in Ind. was in Hendricks Co. towns of Amo and Hadley (near the old Springs Meeting House (Quaker)--the house is gone but a cemetery remains.

Woodson was in the 27th. Inf. with Grant and was confined in the Andersonville Prison. When the Civil War broke out they sent three sons to service-- James--Woodson and Bennett (than just 16 yrs. old.) (he lied about his age) and served two yrs.. Aunt Mollie states 'I believe Bennett was in the 122nd. and Jim (James) was with Sherman on the 'March to the Sea'. Soldiers would come walking past our place and father would send them on horseback a piece to relieve them. We were at Coatesville, Ind. when a big crowd had gathered and they were calling for volunteers and when mother heard that Bennett had enlisted 'I tho. she would faint, she cried and cried.'--Members of the 'Golden Circle' (democrat came to the top of our hill and shouted abuses at my father and said he wanted his dau. to marry Negroes'.

Almost all of the above information has been taken from the interview by Mrs. Marion Greelee-Jefferies of her great Aunt Mollie Bryant--Have in 1922.

Mollie lived most of her married life in Lay County, Illinois
Effingham, Illinois, and was buried at Lindbergh, Illinois.
The initial (A.B.) after the name is not necessarily correct but I believe it to be the letter 'M' stands for the word 'married' - the letter 'C' stands for the word 'Children'.

Anderson and Sarah Bryant are buried in the cemetery at Stilesville, Ind.
If there are any questions and correction concerning this Bryant family please write to Miss Agness Bryant, 4452 So. Adams Ave. Milwaukee 7, Wisconsin or write to me at Ingham, Illinois.

Mrs. Marion Greele - letter of her great Aunt Mollie Bryant - has been taken from the interview by

Mrs. Lizzie O'Neal-Nelson--Plainfield, Wisconsin wrote me the following concerning her parents(July 13,1960)

My mother was born Dec. 1, 1876 in Sullivan County, Missouri--as it was the Centennial year of America Independence, that accounts for her unusual middle name of Centennial.

I was 9 yrs. old when the O'Neal family moved to Iowa, probably early in 1907 ~~in~~ 1910 we moved to South Dakota (Beadle County).

Ida and William O'Neal are buried in Wessington Cemetery near the town of that name in Hand County, South Dakota.

She writes 'Mama' always said that they (Bryant's) had been in this country so many generations that she had no idea where they emigrated from. She often spoke of having a Quaker grandmother.

Mrs. Nelson writes--'Years ago I learned the Bryant's is considered an Irish name and that all Bryant's are des. of BRIAN BORU. There may be a lot of imagination in that O'NEALS also are supposed to be des. from the great BRIAN! having received their name from his son Neal.
