

The Arabic numerals nearest the left-hand margin simply indicate the number of the male members that are discussed in the family line. The small Roman numerals show the number of children each male member had, while the small Arabic numeral between the first Roman numeral and the first name of each group of children indicates the generation of that group.

An Arabic numeral to the left of a Roman numeral (always indicating a male member) shows that this man will be taken up for discussion later under that same Arabic numeral.

The Arabic numeral between the christian ^{name} and ^{the} surname also indicates the generation of that member of the family, while the name of each male ancestor together with the number under which he is discussed is placed in parenthesis at the right of the name then under discussion.

Whatever is to be said about the women in the family line must be done each in her own order when ^{she is} they are mentioned under the heading: 'children' as ^{her} their descendants rightfully come under their father's family head.

Dear sirs:

I written to the Clark Mr. T. N. Hadley, put me on the track of you all. I want you to give me the full history of Joseph and Nancy's children and William's family and Polly and Dickerson. One of my daughters died Nov. the 11 '70. She was married and had one child, it died Oct the 26. 1870 I have four daughters married, 2 single daughters one son living, he is 17 years old. My youngest is a daughter. She is twelve years old. I am going on 60 one years old Polly 56 years. I have five grandchildren.

I had a hard time with the rebels and gurilers. I was radical from the top of my head to the bottom of my feet that was the reason the rebels were so hard on me that kept me on the scout for months and years I lived in the middle of rebeldom. I am for the right of sufferage. I am in hopes that I will live to see the white ladies have the reight of suffrage too. Thiss leaves us all well.

Yours fraternelly,

Mrs. Ellen Miles,
Danville, Ind.

Dear Mrs. Miles:- Received your letter several days ago and was very glad to get it with the copy of the old deed and old letter.

The deed is very interesting. It reminds me of a copy of a deed to Robert Leak, my great great grandfather in Bracken Co. Ky. that we found last summer. We found many deeds but did not have time to copy very much. Wouldn't it be interesting to visit the Co. seat of Clark Co. Ky. and dig up the old records? If they are as well kept as they are in Bracken Co. it would be easy.

The letter you sent is interesting. Who is this James Clark? Is he a son of James Clark - ^{son} brother of Charles Clark who stayed in Kentucky?

But this letter does not seem to be the one I was thinking of. The one I had in mind must be one your sister Ruth E. Stiles was born, Jan.

6 - 1886, and September 18 - 1906 married Alva W. Stanley, who was born Dec. 28 - 1884.
Son:

Lovell C. Stanley was born
April 14 - 1908 and Oct. 15 - 1927
was married to Juanita Pearl
Newly, who was born Nov. 25 - 1907.
Daughter:

Crystal Stanley was born Oct. 11
1911 - and was married, to
May 13 - 1933 to Richard Franklin Wells, who was born May 31 - 1904.

My Grandmother, Lizzie or Elizabeth Alexander, was a Hamilton.

I hope this information is what you want. Yours Truly Alva Stanley.

Katherine Irons showed me one time. The way I remember it it had the names of James + Alice Clark with their births and deaths and other material about them and their children. I wonder if Katherine would mind loaning it to me or making me a copy.

I am sending copies of two letters my sister got some time ago. Think they will explain themselves. But I later wrote to this Mr. Anderson and never heard from him. We wondered if he had died. Think I shall write to the Post M. and ask about him. He is a very interesting writer.

The other letter I am sending a copy of is one I found in grandpa Leaches papers. Mother says she remembers the deer hides. She said they used the hides for shoe strings and harness strings but she was too young to remember getting them.

Well I must close. Hope we can get more information from time to time.

Sincerely,

Rose Leach
