Esteemed friend Marthya patterson I have at last taken My pen in hand to inform you that I am in tolerable Health & have been ever Since I left that well remembered Old place and all the rest of our relations except uncle Charley. he has had a few Shakes of the ague but has quit Shaking & is on the mend I stood the journey very well I walked when I pleased & rode when I pleased & whenever the Company Suited me best I saw a great many curious sights on the road the mountains rivers towns droves of horses mules cattle hogs & sheep & movers of all description Some in little old carts. Some pact up on horses Some on foot with their budgets on their backs Some lone women traveling hundreds of miles on foot. We met one very old crooked greyheaded man with his pantaloons rolled up above his knees with a Marilla A large box on his back with the monkey and other Shows in it. When I got here every body & every thing looked so strang that I often wished Myself back Where I could see little Joseph & Mary & Nancy & William and all my schoolmates. Tell Ewalina my little present makes me think of her whenever I see it. tell Sarah Curtis I often look at my cape & mittens & think of her I would like to be with you all but I never expect to see any of you unless you come to this Cold & Muddy country for Nanny is so set up with her Corn & large potatoes & garden & the prospect of living so plentiful that to hear her talk you would think she scarcely saw the need & I am getting better reconciled as I am getting acquainted with the people here for they have been very good to me nearly all the neighbour women gave me A chicken apiece. Some ~~neighbour~~ two one was so near like the one you gave me that uncle John said I certainly brought it with me. I like this place on account of making sugar & molasses last spring we made A large pillar case nearly full of as nice sugar as you ever saw. I have seen A great many Strange looking people Since I left there but the greater part of our settlement are Carolinains & begin to look very natural. I want Cousin Samuel Allred to see this letter I saw Eli Bray since he returned & he said that he wished me to hurry about writing that letter. So I conclude my letter with My best respects to all inquiring friends this from Asenath M. Duncan

Write to me Whenever you can
