THE DESCENDANTS OF WELCOME GARRETT AND PHOEBE SUMNER, DAUGHTER OF ROBERT SUMNER & PHOEBE BEALS. Compiled by Jewell N. Thompson, Rt #3, Box 24, Danville, Indiana 46122.

"...The southern half of our County was settled by people from North Carolina, mostly Quakers who came from Guilford and surrounding counties in N.C. We have a small town of Hadley not far from Danville, settled by the Hadleys from Chatham County in North Carolina. Also, we have a Guilford Township in Hendricks County, which was named for Guilford County, North Carolina. Many of the old families still live here. The Stanley, Osborn, Mendenhall, Coffin, Hayworth and other families, as well as several Friends Churches are still in the County. I suspect my g-g-g-grandfather, James Thompson came from a Quaker family, but have no proof of it.

On page 40 of the book The Quaker Yeomen, paragraph F-15, you show Phoebe Beals as marring Charles Canaday and after his death she married Robert Sumner. The children of Phoebe and Robert Sumner were: (1) William; (2) Caleb; (3) Joshua; (4) Phoebe; (5) Thomas; (6) Prudence; (7) Abigail; (8) Sarah; (9) Robert. Of the above children, I only have information on the fourth, Phoebe Ann.

PHOEBE ANN SUMNER, born 5-18-1755, died 1-8-1811, daughter of Robert and Phoebe Beals Summer, was married was married on August 5, 1777 to Welcome Garrett, son of John Garrett. (In 1881, one of the Garretts had in his posession a Bible which was published in England in 1831. It listed the names of many Garretts, but it is impossible to make out the relationship between them all. There is one entry, "William Garat born 27 August baptised 3d Sept. 1643 and Ann Garratt wife of above William Garat was born 19th of March 1642. These two, William and Ann, came from Darby in the County of Leicester, England in the year 1684 and settled in Darby Township (then) Chester County, Pennsylvania." John Garrett, father of Welcome Garrett was supposed to be a descendant of William and Ann Garrett, but the old Bible was not kept up to date, so it is not known if this is true). Welcome Garrett was a Quaker and a member of the Westfield Monthly Meeting of Friends in Surry County, North Carolina. It was there that he raised his large family of sixteen children. When his children were grown, they all left North Carolina, so Welcome Garrett himself, at the age of 76 came to Indiana, settling first is Wayne County, and then in Hamilton County, near Westfield where he spent the rest of his life.

Welcome and Phoebe Sumner Garrett had twelve children. After her death in North Carolina he remarried. His second wife was Margaret Bond. Phoebe and Margaret were related. Phoebe's mother Phoebe Sumner had a brother Thomas Beals, a famous Quaker Preacher. Thomas married Sarah Antrim. One of their children was Elizabeth, also a preacher for over sixty years. Elizabeth married Samuel Bond. One of their daughters, Margaret Bond, was the second wife of Welcome Garrett. They had four children.

By the year 1900, the descendants of Welcome Garrett and his two wives numbered over 900. I am listing only a few. If anyone is interested in specific lines I may be able to help.

The children of Welcome and Phoebe Beals Garrett:

- Jesse Antrim, b. October 23, 1818, died June 19, 1819.

CALEB GARRETT, the eldest child of Welcome and Phoebe Beals Garrett, was born March 20, 1778 in Surry County, North Carolina, and died July 31, 1831 in Danville, Hendricks County, Indiana. He owned land in Surry County, North Carolina for several years, then in 1807 moved to Guilford County, where he belonged to the Deep River Monthly Meeting. He also owned land in Deep River. By occupation he was a farmer, a preacher and a doctor. He 1813 he stopped attending the Quaker meetings and was disowned by them. He later identified himself with the Christian (Campbelite) Church.

Caleb Garrett married Beulah Jackson, daughter of Curtis and Ruth Beals Jackson. (Ruth Beals was a daughter of Bowater Beals). They had nine children. In 1816 they moved to Washington County, Indiana, where he practiced medicine. In 1829 they moved to Danville, Indiana where he died on July 31, 1831. His (second) wife died the following day, August 1, 1831, leaving several minor children as orphans. A son-in-law, Sam McPheeters was appointed guardian over the orphans. The children of Caleb and Beulah Jackson Garrett:

Cyrus, b. 4-12-1804. Married Betsey Hamerly. Lived in Winchester, Indiana.

Nathan, b. 11-19-1806. Married Sarah Puckett. Lived in Randolph County, Indiana.

- Caroline, b. 12-8-1808. Married Joseph Clements. Lived in Hendricks County, Indiana. Ancestors of the Wisehart family of doctors in North Salem, Indiana.

5. Eliza Anna. (See below).

6. Julia Ann, b. 10-9-1814. Married Jesse Coffin. Lived in Hendricks County, Indiana.

Merlin, b. 1817. Died in an accident in 1822. 7.

Emily, b. 12-26-1818. Married John Simmons. Moved to Oregon.

Nancy, b. 1820, died 1820.

(Note: the last three children were born in Washington County, Indiana, the others in Surry, Guilford and Rowan Counties, North Carolina).

Beulah Jackson Garrett died in Washington County, Indiana in 1820. Caleb Garrett married (2) Cynthia Paul. born 1803, died 1831. They had four children: 10. Paulina, b. 1824, d. 1908. Married James Lewis. Lived in Danville, Indiana.

- Caleb, b. 1826, d. 1900. Married Abigal Fudge. Lived in Morgan County, Indiana. 11.
- 12. William B., b. 1828. Married Tabitha Evans. Lived in Iowa and Nebraska.
- 13. Lewis, b. 4-16-1831 in Danville, Indiana. Married - (no record).

(Note: The first log cabin was built in Danville, Indiana in 1824. Caleb Garrett was Danville's first physician.)

ELIZA ANNA GARRETT, fifth child of Caleb and Beulah Jackson Garrett, was born January 15, 1812 in North Carolina and died September 19, 1885 in Danville, Indiana. While she was a small child her family moved to Washington County, Indiana where she was raised. On June 5, 1828 she married Samuel McPheeters, also of Washington County, Indiana. He was the son of John McPheeters, a veteran of the Revolutionary War. The Mc Pheeters family had come from Scotland several generations earlier. About a year after their marriage they

(along with her father Caleb Garrett, step-mother, and family), moved to Danville, Indiana, where they remained for the rest of their lives. They had seven children:

Margaret Jane (1829-1879) married William McDaniel. Lived near Danville.

2. Welcome Garrett (1831-1888) married Julia Life. Lived near Danville.

3. Rebecca Julia (1834-1902). See below.

4. Joseph (1838-1861). Lost his life in the Civil War. 5. William (1840-1862). Lost his life in the Civil War.

6. Theophilus (1850-1880) married Matilda Sharp. Lived near Danville.

7. Eliza (1852 -) married Joel Ousley. Lived in Montgomery County, Indiana.

REBECCA JULIA ANN McPHEETERS, the third child of Samuel and Eliza Ann Garrett McPheeters, was born November 6, 1834, about a mile west of Danville, Indiana, on a farm. She was raised near Danville, and on October 2, 1849 married Jesse Thompson of Danville. He was a cabinet maker, was born in Guilford County, North Carolina, and was a son of James Thompson who was also born in Guilford County. His mother was Sarah Hodson, daughter of Robert Hodson, also of Guilford County. Jesse and Rebecca McPheeters Thompson had eleven children:

- 1. Lawrence (1850-1917) married Nellie Gould. He was a carpenter.
- 2. Arthur Garrett (1851-1920) married Mary Miles. He was a carpenter.

3. Nathan John (1855-1929). See below.

4. Cyrus (1857-1931) married Lillie Dill. Owned and operated a Drug Store in Danville.

- 5. Samuel Luther (1860-1922) married Ida Morasha of Detroit, Michigan. He became a baseball player, played for Detroit and Philadelphia in the National League, held the homerun record until Babe Ruth surpassed him in 1921. He played with what was known as a "dead ball" which had no bounce in it. At that time the pitcher was ten feet closer to the batter. He had a life time batting average of .336 and hit over .400 two years. He has been elected into the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, New York.
- 6. Jesse May (1862-1946) did not marry. Had a millinery store in Danville.
- 7. William (1866-) married Hattie Bell. Owned and operated a bakery.
- 8. Julia (1869-1920) married Fred Warner. Lived in Danville.
- 9. Charles Ritter (1871-1872).

10. Ethan James (1873-1873).

11. Anna Eliza (1875-1955) married Porter Blair. Jesse Thompson was in the Civil War. After about two years service he was blinded. He spent the next year in Army hospitals, and was finally discharged, still unable to see. Application for a pension was disapproved. He was born November 7, 1829 and died in Danville, Indiana April 24, 1900. His wife Rebecca died in Danville April 6, 1902.

NATHAN JOHN THOMPSON was born near Danville in 1855 and died there in 1929. He married Alice Ferguson. He was a farmer. His second son

ARTHUR RAYMOND THOMPSON was my father. I am retired from the United States Air Force, and am also retired from General Motors. I now live on and operate a small farm near Danville, Indiana.

We thank Mr. Thompson for his contribution, and for his offer of assistance to those working on this line.
