ELIGIBILITY CLAUSE

"Any woman is eligible for membership in the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution who is not less than eighteen years of age, and who is descended from a man or woman who, with unflinching loyalty to the cause of American Independence, served as a sailor, or as a soldier or civil officer in one of the several Colonies or States, or in the United Colonies or States, or as a recognized patriot, or rendered material aid thereto; provided the applicant is personally acceptable to the Society." (Constitution, Article III, Section 1.)

*Marriage in every instance in this paper means legal and lawful marriage. Date of marriage may be substituted for dates of birth and death where such date proves the soldier to have been living during the Revolution and of a suitable age for service. (Note: Resolution adopted by the twenty-fourth Continental Congress: Descendants of polygamous marriage can not be accepted as members of this Society.)

ANCESTOR'S SERVICES

The said Alexander Sleeth JR is the ancestor who assisted in establishing American Independence, while acting in the capacity of Scout and Indian Fighter

My ancestor's services during the Revolutionary War were as follows: Performed "scout duty chasing the Indians out of the country and endeavoring to recover the property the Indians had stolen."

See Attached.

Reference for service: Verified by original application #140207 A113, which cited as its references for service:

- 1 - Statement of applicant that granddaughter of Alexander Sleeth, Jr, said he fought in the Revolution; and
- 2 - a quotation of Alexander Sleeth given in the "Hacker Record", a manuscript record, written 1880 by Wm Hacker of Shelbyville, IN, which quoted Alexander Give references by volume and page to the documentary or other authorities for—MILITARY

RECORD: Where reference is made to unpublished or inaccessible records of service, the applicant must file the official copy. Sleeth as saying he performed "scout duty chasing Indians out of the country," etc. The Hacker Record was in the hands of Mrs. J. A. Conroy of Shelbyville, IN, in 1925.

Alexander Sleeth was accepted by the Daughters of the American Revolution for his services in West Virginia. His services are recorded under number 140207 of the Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution at its headquarters in Washington, D.C.
