To Whom It May Concern:

Reference: Attached copy of Descendants of Richard Mynatt.

Richard Mynatt was the first Mynatt in America.

All persons with the last name of Mynatt descend from his family tree.

There are many living Mynatt's and their ancestors that have been located in Hendricks County, IN and are listed on this copy.

Request that this copy be placed in a hanging file in your genealogy section.

This is a work in progress and once the hanging file is established I and other family members will add articles, photos etc to be viewed by others interested in the Mynatt family history.

Sincerely:

William Mynatt

Descendants of Richard Mynatt

Generation 1

1. RICHARD¹ MYNATT was born in 1703 in Newberry, Berkshire, England. He died between 1731-1791 in England. He married on 07 Feb 1815 in Newbury, Berkshire, England.

Notes for Richard Mynatt:

On December 27, 2001 an Individual only identified as Winter48 reported in Ancestry.com that his Wife descended from Richard Mynatt, a Sea Merchant, that resided at #13 Billiter Lane, London, England. The family homestead at that address was destroyed in the German bombing raids during World War II. In addition his friends in London went to that location in 1999 and took a photo of what stands there now (a modern business office).

Richard Mynatt had the following child:

2. i. RICHARD² MYNATT was born on 21 Oct 1729 in South Molton, Devon, England. He died on 24 Jul 1805 in Knox Co., Tennessee. He married (1) SARAH JANE CUMMINGS on 31 Mar 1755 in Prince William County, Virginia, USA, daughter of Simon Cummins and Elizabeth Harell. She was born on 13 Feb 1734 in Fauquier, VA, USA. She died in 1806 in Knox Co., Tennessee. He married on 31 Mar 1755 in Prince William, Va.

Generation 2

2. RICHARD² MYNATT (Richard¹) was born on 21 Oct 1729 in South Molton, Devon, England. He died on 24 Jul 1805 in Knox Co., Tennessee. He married (1) SARAH JANE CUMMINGS on 31 Mar 1755 in Prince William County, Virginia, USA, daughter of Simon Cummins and Elizabeth Harell. She was born on 13 Feb 1734 in Fauquier, VA, USA. She died in 1806 in Knox Co., Tennessee. He married on 31 Mar 1755 in Prince William, Va.

Notes for Richard Mynatt:

Taken from the London, England Who's Who in 1977:

The Mynatt's were among the French (Norman) families who fled to England during the troubled times of the Religious Wars.

Richard Mynatt Sr. lived in London, England and had one known Son named Richard Mynatt Jr.

Richard Mynatt Jr. is the person from whom most Mynatt's in the United States of America descend. Richard Mynatt was a young 20 year old student at Oxford University when he decided to come to America, booking passage on February 12, 1749. His address at the time was #13 Billiter Lane, London, England. He came to Westmoreland Co. Virginia to live in the plantation house and to work in the kitchen of Staford Hall Plantation, the ancestral home of the Lee's of Virginia. He worked as a cook for the Honorable Thomas Lee (Grandfather of Confederate General Robert E. Lee), for 4 years in exchange for his passage to America. He earned eight pounds sterling per year, a good wage for a cook at the time. His place in history is secured by the fact that he was the first indentured servant to sue successfully for his release from his master. He received his certificate of freedom from the Lee family on July 31, 1754. Thomas Lee died in 1750 and his son Philip Ludwell Lee took over the Lee estate. Philip is described as being a tyrant and Richard had to go to court to secure his certificate of freedom. Stratford Hall, Thomas Lee's home is open to the public and in the summer time dinner is served there. The guide talks about Richard Mynatt, the French Pastry Chef, in his presentation. Also info can be found about Richard on the internet at Stratford Hall web site <<http://www.stratfordhall.org/index.htm>>. (Click history then slaves).

In the book, "George Washington-A Biography" by Douglas Southall Freeman, in a footnote on Westmorland court orders 1752-1755, page 186A, it is stated"...For an example of an indentured worker's successful legal contest of his master's interpretation of his length of service, see the case of Richard Mynatt vs. Phillip Ludwell Lee, July 31, 1753..."

*The record reads:

"Richard Mynatt presented his petition to this Court vs. Phillip Ludwell Lee, Esq. Setting forth that he had served out the time for which he was indented and that the sd, Lee refused to give him a discharge, the sd, Lee appeared and the matter fully debated and upon mature consideration thereon had by the Court they adjudged him free and Ordered that the Clerk give him a certificate," Richard and his wife Sarah lived in Prince William Co. Virginia in 1758. They moved around 1765 to Hampshire Co. Virginia (now West Virginia). They moved again to Botetourt Co. Virginia in 1773.

*Richard owned 400 acres of land in Montgomery Co. Virginia in 1780. The land was on the North Fork of the Roanoke River, somewhere between Lusters Gate and McDonald's Mill. Records indicate it was along the "Great Road" which went from Pennsylvania west to Kentucky. On October 7, 1787 Richard and his Wife Sarah sold the 400 acres for 50 pounds and moved to Knox Co. TN near Clinch Mountain. They purchased 450 acres from Stokley Donelson on June 15, 1796, which entitles their descendents to be in the elite group of FIRST FAMILIES OF TENNESSEE. A few years later they purchased another 100 acres. On November 1, 1783, in Montgomery County Court, it was ordered that Byrd Smith be appointed overseer of the road from 7 mile free to Ingles Ferry in the room of Abraham Trigg and that the said Abraham divide the Tithables between the said Byrd and Richard Mynatt.

Richard Mynatt served in the Revolutionary War as an express rider and served two terms as doorkeeper in the 1795 session of the House of Representatives of the Territory of the USA south of the Ohio River. As doorkeeper he was paid $1.75 per day and 10 cents per mile for the 40 miles traveled to and from home.

Richard Mynatt is on a list of persons who were charged with tax in Montgomery County, Virginia for the year 1787 who have removed before same could be collected (listed by Bird Smith, Commr as persons that moved to NC).

Richard and Sarah are buried in the Old Mynatt Cemetery, located at the base of Clinch Mountain near Blain, Grainger County, Tennessee.

8. SUSANNAH³ MYNATT (Richard², Richard¹) was born in 1776 in Botetourt, Virginia. She died in 1830 in Fayette, Alabama, USA. She married (1) THOMAS HALLMARK in 1794 in Tennessee, son of George Hallmark and Leannah Mynatt. He was born about 1772 in Botetourt, Virginia. He died in 1805 in Knox County, TN. She married (2) WILLIAM IRWIN on 10 Dec 1805 in Knox County, TN. He was born in 1786 in South Carolina, United States. He died in 1861 in Marion, Alabama, United States.

Notes for Susannah Mynatt:

Notes from my branch of the Mynatt family by Fred McCaleb: Susannah Mynatt Hallmark married William Irwin in Knox County, Tennessee, DEC 10, 1805. I have a copy of the marriage license. She must have been pretty attractive to entice the young never married Bill Irwin, to marry her with four children by the Hallmark marriage. The Irwins moved to Elyton, Alabama (later called Birmingham) and raised the family.

Generation 3 (con't)

Fayette and Marion Co., Alabama

In My Branch of the Mynatt Family by Fred McCaleb, Fred states the following In 1790 George Hallmark was living close to his father in law, Richard Mynatt, in Knoxville, Tn. area. Richard would already be an old man in need of help. My theory is that George and Lena let their oldest son Thomas stay with his Grandparents to take care of the hard work of pioneer times. All the Mynatt children, other than Susana had already married and left home by 1791. The Mynatts were old and left with their last child which was a girl. So according to my thinking my ancestor Thomas Hallmark went to live with his grandparents. He and his young Aunt Susana, with was about his age, tried to take care of the old ones. Susana must have been an attractive girl and Thomas a handsome man. They fell in love.

They must have been married by 1794. Or did they marry at all? No marriage license was found in the Knox County, Tennessee Courthouse. But that doesn't mean they didn't get married. Their first child was born, his name was James Washington Hallmark. Some have listed James Washington as a son of George and Lena Hallmark. This is not quite true, but blood wise it would be almost true. The second child was John. I never found anything more about him. The third child was Elizabeth. The fourth child was George. He was my ancestor. Thomas Hallmark was missing by 1805. What happened to him is unknown. The Indians may have killed him; he may have died of disease of whatever, It's all guess work.

On September 25, 1994, I received a letter from Kenneth E. Hallmark of Clovis, CA. He presented me with the following information:

Nearly all of the Hallmarks in the United States are descended from one George Hallmark, an illegitimate scoundrel, who was born in 1742 in Marbury, England. After doing time in jail for some thievery he came to the United States (Virginia) and he eventually became a minister. He married Leannah Mynatt and they had 11 children.

The following are the children of George Hallmark:

1. William Hallmark
2. Thomas Hallmark
3. Obediah Hallmark
4. John Hallmark
5. George Hallmark
6. Richard H. Hallmark
7. Mary "Polly" Hallmark
8. Mynatt Hallmark

George Hallmark, the presumed progenitor of all the HALLMARK Family in the United States is believed to have been born illegitimately in 1742 in Marbury, England to Mary HALLMARK. He died in northern Alabama in the United States about 70 plus years later, having fathered at least ten children. He had traveled from England to Virginia, Tennessee and finally Alabama before his death. In 1989 there were 1251 family units with the last name of HALLMARK listed in phone directories throughout the continental United States. All these people are believed to have come from the line of GEORGE HALLMARK and his wife LLEANNAH MYNATT.

The first official record that we have of George is his baptismal record. He was christened on June 23, 1742 at Malpas Church (Anglican), Chester County, England. He was listed as the "Illegitimate son of Mary Hallmark", and as such was given her surname. The name of the father has not been determined. (Researcher: Olwen ALLMARK TAYLOR.)

The next record of George can be found in the records of the Crown Court Papers, February 9, 1766, Shrewsbury, county of Shropshire, Oxford Circuit, were George is charged with stealing a linen handkerchief containing monies. He pleaded not guilty. The Summer 1764 Lent 1767 Court Records show that "George CANDILAND alias HALLMARK" was indicted "for Felony Stealing One LInnen Handkerchief Value 2d, half a sovereign in gold and eleven shillings in monies of Andre MANSELL the Younger at the Parish of Whitchurch, North Shropshire on the borders of Cheshire, 12 January sixth year of the reign of George 3." (1766) "Proved guilty. No Goods. To be transported for seven years". At the Assizes of Shresbury held 22 day March 6th year of Lord Sovereign George III King of Great Britain etc..." Oxford Circuit of Crown Papers. (Source Olwen ALLMARK TAYLOR, White Cottage, 3 Townside Haddenham, Aylesbury, Bucks HP17 8BG.)

In Bonded Passengers to America: 1663-1775, by Peter Wilson COLDHAM, a three volume set, there is a volume sub-titled "Western Oxford, Norfolk, Northern and Midland Circuits" which mentions George HALLMARK. His name is to be found in Shropshire, page 57. The ship of his transport is not mentioned. It is assumed that he served seven years as an indentured servant, probably in Virginia, possibly at the Stratford Hall Plantation (where his father-in-law, Richard MYNATT, served earlier) or some other Virginia plantation. (Note: No record has yet been found for him at Stratford Hall, but a historian there will keep us in mind as she works with the records there.)

The first documented reference to George HALLMARK in America is in Virginia in Fincastle County (now part of Botetourt County) where he was listed as delinquent in his taxes on a list by Daniel TRIGG, Deputy Sheriff for the year 1773. At a court held for Fincastle December 6, 1774 a list of delinquents in the New River and Reed Creek Area was recorded by the court as that part that ought to be received by the vestry of the Parish of Botetourt. Georg HOLMARK was on this list. (See Mary B. & F.B.Kegley's Early Adventurers on the Wester Waters, Vol I, The New River in Virginia in Pioneer Days, 1745-1800, (Orange, VA: Green Publishers, Inc. 1980, page 103-105, 105-106).

By circa 1773, George had married or "taken up with" Leanna MYNATT. (The only legal marriage at this time was one performed by an Episcopal Priest and as such was very expensive, and often not within the means of most people.) Leannah was the daughter of othe English immigrants, Richard MYNATT and Sarah CUMMINS. Richard had worked for four years beginning February 12, 1850 in the kitchen of Stratford Hall, the ancestral home of the LEE's of Virginia. He earned eight pounds sterling per year, a good wage for a cook. His place in history is secured by the fact that he was the first indentured servant to sue successfully for his release from his master, Phillip Ludwell LEE, on July 31, 1734. See the Westmoreland Orders 1752-1755.

In 1780, according to DAR documentation, George "rendered patriotic service in Botetourt County, VA" and that service was validated February 14, 1782. It is believed that he delivered supplies to the Revolutionary Army. See Public Service Claims Commission, Book I, Page 167, dated July 30, 1783 where George HALMARK is cited as having been given a warrant for delivering goods to the Revolutionary Army in January of 1781.

In 1778 George is shown to have received a North Carolina land grant #1043 for 350 acres on both sides of Lick Creek in what is now Greene County, Tennessee. At this time the land was in the old state of Franklin.

While in Tennessee, George helped to establish for the first Church in Grainger County in 1788 which was located at the mouth of the Richland River. He served as the clerk of this church, called appropriately Richland Baptist Church. The minutes which survive from the period of April 11, 1791 until August 8, 1795 were written by George who served as "clerk" which he spelled in the English fashion, as "clark". Mentioned in the minutes are other familiar family names - MYNATT (William MYNATT-Leannah's brother) and his wife Lileah or Lydia, as well as David Satterwhie, Samuel and Kiziah Huges, Edward Freels. George is also mentioned as a church delegate to the Holston Association Convention in 1794 from this church. In the minutes in 1795 it is mentioned that the Hallmark and the Mynatt families are authorized to have "a Letter of Dismission" from the church-they are moving on. (see Tennessee Ancestors August 1987 for the complete transcript minutes of the Richland Baptist Church 1791-1795 by George HALLMARK. The original manuscript is the property of the McClung Collection in Knox County, Tennessee. Also see GOODSPEED'S History of Tennessee, page 853.)

George apparently moved further south east and into Knox County. In 1796 the Little Flat Creek Baptist Church was begun. It was organized August 18, 1797 by John PARKER as moderator and George HALLMARK as clerk and is still standing. It is a log cabin which was built on the MYNATT Property which was part of Little Flat Creek, now called Corryton. (See 1981 newspaper article on the history of Little Flat Creek Church on page 176 of Notes of Miss Mary HALLMARK and Fred McCALEB.

"On the 25 of December 1802 delegates from 19 Baptist Churches, formerly belonging to the Holston Association, assembled at Beaver Creek Meeting-house in Knox County, and organized the Tennessee Association. The Reverend William Johnson was chosen moderator and Francis Hamilton, of the nineteen churches represented, five were location in Knox County. They were Beaver Ridge...Hickory Creek...For of Holston and French Broad...Little Flat Creek represented by Richard Newport, Eli Scraggs, and Geoge Hallmark, and Beaver Creek..."This is especially poignant to me as it puts my four times great grandfather George HALLMARK at the same meeting as my husband's five times great grandfather the Reverend William Johnson. (Goodspeed's History of Tennessee, page 898-899.)

George shows up again in Knox County, Tennessee in 1806 as member of Captain John REYNOLDS Company. (Volume 26, East Tennessee Historical Society Publication of Early East Tennessee Taxpayers, 1806 compiled by Pollyanna CREEKMORE, Knox County, Tennessee.)

In an 1809 account of a Rhea County Tennessee newspaper, mention is made of passing by the old HALLMARK place. Apparently George and his family had lived there for awhile also. By 1809 they were located in the 1809 Mississippi Territory where they can be found in the territorial census (later Madison County, Alabama). George HALLMARK is listed as a tax payer as are (sons) George, Richard and William. This is the last recorded mentioned of George who traveled from England to Alabama, from Anglicanism to Primitive Baptist, from convicted criminal to church founder. He was a citizen of the times who was strong enough to flourish in this wilderness country. I admire his perseverance and spirit. I am proud to be his descendant.

Notes for Susannah Mynatt:

Notes from my branch of the Mynatt family by Fred McCaleb: Susannah Mynatt Hallmark married William Irwin in Knox County, Tennessee, DEC 10, 1805. I have a copy of the marriage license. She must have been pretty attractive to entice the young never married Bill Irwin, to marry her with four children by the Hallmark marriage. The Irwins moved to Elyton, Alabama (later called Birmingham) and raised the family.

Notes for Thomas Hallmark:

Notice that Thomas hallmark married his Aunt Susanna Myatt. Thomas and Susanna lived in Fayette and Marion Co., Alabama

In My Branch of the Mynatt Family by Fred McCaleb, Fred states the following In 1790 George Hallmark was living close to his father in law, Richard Mynatt, in Knoxville, Tn. area. Richard would already be an old man in need of help. My theory is that George and Lena let their oldest son Thomas stay with his Grandparents to take care of the hard work of pioneer times. All the Mynatt children, other than Susana had already married and left home by 1791. The Mynatts were old and left with their last child which was a girl. So according to my thinking my ancestor Thomas Hallmark went to live with his grandparents. He and his young Aunt Susana, with was about his age, tried to take care of the old ones. Susana must have been an attractive girl and Thomas a honsome man. They fell in love.

They must have been married by 1794. Or did they marry at all? No marriage license was found in the Knox County, Tennessee Courthouse. But that doesn't mean they didn't get married. Their fist child was born , his name was James Washington Hallmark. Some have listed James Washington as a son of George and Lena Hallmark. This is not quite true, but blood wise it would be almost true. The second child was John. I never found anything more about him. The tird child was Elizabeth. The fourth child was George. He was my ancestor. Thomas Hallmark was missing by 1805. What happened to him is unknown. The Indians may have killed him; he may have died of disease of whatever, It's all guess work.

On September 25, 1994, I received a letter from Kenneth E. Hallmark of Clovis, CA. He presented me with the following information:

Nearly all of the Hallmarks in the United States are descended from one George Hallmark, an illegitimate scoundrel, who was born in 1742 in Marbury, England. After doing time in jail for some thievery he came to the United States (Virginia) and he eventually became a minister. He married Leannah Mynatt and they had 11 children.

The following are the children of George Hallmark:

1. William Hallmark
2. Thomas Hallmark

George Hallmark, the presumed progenitor of all the HALLMARK Family in the United States is believed to have been born illegitimately in 1742 in Marbury, England to Mary HALLMARK. He died in northern Alabama in the United States about 70 plus years later, having fathered at least ten children. He had traveled from England to Virginia, Tennessee and finally Alabama before his death. In 1989 there were 1251 family units with the last name of HALLMARK listed in phone directories throughout the continental United States. All these people are believed to have come from the line of GEORGE HALLMARK and his wife LLEANNAH MYNATT.

The first official record that we have of George is his baptismal record. He was christened on June 23, 1742 at Malpas Church (Anglican), Chester County, England. He was listed as the "illegitimate son of Mary Hallmark", and as such was given her surname. The name of the father has not been determined. (Researcher: Olwen ALLMARK TAYLOR.)

The next record of George can be found in the records of the Crown Court Papers, February 9, 1766, Shrewsbury, county of Shropshire, Oxford Circuit, where George is charged with stealing a linen handkerchief containing monies. He pleaded not guilty. The Summer 1764 Lent 1767 Court Records show that "George CANDILAND alias HALLMARK" was indicted "for Felony Stealing One Linnen Handkerchief Value 2d, half a sovereign in gold and eleven shillings in monies of Andre MANSELL the Younger at the Parish of Whitchurch, North Shropshire on the borders of Cheshire, 12 January sixth year of the reign of George 3." (1766) "Proved guilty. No Goods. To be transported for seven years". At the Assizes of Shresbury held 22 day March 6th year of Lord Sovereign George III King of Great Britain etc..." Oxford Circuit of Crown Papers. (Source Olwen ALLMARK TAYLOR, White Cottage, 3 Townside Haddenham, Aylesbury, Bucks HP17 8BG.)

In Bonded Passengers to America: 1663-1775, by Peter Wilson COLDHAM, a three volume set, there is a volume sub-titled "Western Oxford, Norfolk, Northern and Midland Circuits" which mentions George HALLMARK. His name is to be found in Shropshire, page 57. The ship of his transport is not mentioned. It is assumed that he served seven years as an indentured servant, probably in Virginia, possibly at the Stratford Hall Plantation (where his father-in-law, Richard MYNATT, served earlier) or some other Virginia plantation. (Note: No record has yet been found for him at Stratford Hall, but a historian there will keep us in mind as she works with the records there.)

The first documented reference to George HALLMARK in America is in Virginia in Fincastle County (now part of Botetourt County) where he was listed as delinquent in his taxes on a list by Daniel TRIGG, Deputy Sheriff for the year 1773. At a court held for Fincastle December 6, 1774 a list of delinquents in the New River and Reed Creek Area was recorded by the court as that part that ought to be received by the vestry of the Parish of Botetourt. Georg HOLMARK was on this list. (See Mary B. & F.B.Kegley's Eary Adventurers on the Wester Waters, Vol I, The New

River in Virginia in Pioneer Days, 1745-1800, (Orange, VA: Green Publishers, Inc. 1980, page 103-105, 105-106).

By circa 1773, George had married or "taken up with" Leanna MYNATT. (The only legal marriage at this time was one performed by an Episcopal Priest and as such was very expensive, and often not within the means of most people.) Leannah was the daughter of othe English immigrants, Richard MYNATT and Sarah CUMMINS. Richard had worked for four years beginning February 12, 1850 in the kitchen of Stratford Hall, the ancestral home of the LEE's of Virginia. He earned eight pounds sterling per year, a good wage for a cook. His place in history is secured by the fact that he was the first indentured servant to sue successfully for his release from his master, Phillip Ludwell LEE, on July 31, 1734. See the Westmoreland Orders 1752-1755.

In 1780, according to DAR documentation, George "rendered patriotic sevice in Botetourt County, VA" and that service was validated February 14, 1782. It is believed that he delivered supplies to the Revolutionary Ary. See Public Service Claims Commission, Book I, Page 167, dated July 30, 1783 where George HALMARK is cited as having been given a warrant for delivering goods to the Revolutionary Army in January of 1781.

In 1778 George is shown to have received a North Carolina land grant #1043 for 350 acres on both sides of Lick Creek in what is now Greene Count, Tennessee. At this time the land was in the old state of Franklin.

While in Tennessee, George helped to establish for the first Church in Grainger County in 1788 which was located at the mouth of the Richland River. He served as the clerk of this church, called appropriately Richland Baptist Church. The minutes which survive from the period of April 11, 1791 until August 8, 1795 were written by George who served as "clerk" which he spelled in the English fashion, as "clark". Mentioned in the minutes are other familiar family names - MYNATT (William MYNATT-Leannah's brother) and his wife Lileah or Lydia, as well as David Satterwhie, Samuel and Kiziah Huges, Edward Freels. George is also mentioned as a church delegate to the Holston Association Convention in 1794 from this church. In the minures in 1795 it is mentioned that the Hallmark and the Mynatt families are authorized to have "a Letter of Dismission" from the church-they are moving on. (see Tennessee Ancestors August 1987 for the complete transcript minutes of the Richland Baptist Church 1791-1795 by George HALLMARK. The original manuscript is the property of the McClung Collection in Knox County, Tennessee. Also see GOODSPEED'S History of Tennessee, page 853.)

George apparnetly moved further south east and into Knox County. In 1796 the Little Flat Creek Baptist Church was begun. It was organized August 18, 1797 by John PARKER as moderator and George HALLMARK as clerk and is still standing. It is a log cabin which was built on the MYNATT Property which was part of Little Flat Creek, now called Corryton. (See 1981 newspaper article on the history of Little Flat Creek Curch on page 176 of Notes of Miss Mary HALLMARK and Fred McCALEB.

"On the 25 of December 1802 delegates from 19 Baptist Churches, formerly belonging to the Hoston Association, assembled at Beaver Creek Meeting-house in Knox County, and organized the Tennessee Association. The Reverend William Johnson was chosen moderator and Francis Hamilton, of the nineteen churches represented, five were loctation in Knox County. They were Beaver Ridge...Hickory Creek...For of Hoston and French Broad...Little Flat Creek represented by Richard Newport, Eli Scraggs, and Geoge Hallmanrk, and Beaver Creek..."This is especially poignanant to me as it puts my four times great grandfather George HALLMARK at the same meeting as my husband's five times great grandfather the Revern William Johnson. (Goodspeed's History of Tennessee, page 898-899.)

George shows up again in Knox County, Tennessee in 1806 as member of Captain John REYNOLDS Company. (Volume 26, East Tennessee Historical Society Publication of Early East Tennessee Taxpayers, 1806 compiled by Pollyanna CREEKMORE, Knox County, Tennessee.)

In an 1809 account of a Rhea County Tennessee newspaper, mention is made of passing by the old HALLMARK place. Apparently George and his family had lived there for awhile also. By 1809 they were located in the 1809 Mississippi Territory where they can be found in the territorial census (later Madion County, Alabama). George HALLMARK is listed as a tax paper as are (sons) George, Richard and William. This is the last recorded mentioned of George who traveled from England to Alabama, from Anglicanism to Primitive Baptist, from convicted criminal to church founder. He was a citizen of the times who was strong enough to flourish in this wilderness country. I admire his perserverence and spirit. I am proud to be his descendant.

Notes for Thomas Hallmark:

[Brøderbund WFT Vol. 8, Ed. 1, Tree #1313, Date of Import: Jan 10, 1999]

Notice that Thomas hallmark married his Aunt Susanna Myatt. Thomas and Susanna lived in Fayette and Marion Co., Alabama

In My Branch of the Mynatt Family by Fred McCaleb, Fred states the following In 1790 George Hallmark was living close to his father in law, Richard Mynatt, in Knoxville, Tn. area. Richard would already be an old man in need of help. My theory is that George and Lena let their oldest son Thomas stay with his Grandparents to take care of the hard work of pioneer times. All the Mynatt children, other than Susana had already married and left home by 1791. The Mynatts were old and left with their last child which was a girl. So according to my thinking my ancestor Thomas Hallmark went to live with his grandparents. He and his young Aunt Susana, with was about his age, tried to take care of the old ones. Susana must have been an attractive girl and Thomas a handsome man. They fell in love.

They must have been married by 1794. Or did they marry at all? No marriage license was found in the Knox County, Tennessee Courthouse. But that doesn't mean they didn't get married. Their first child was born, his name was James Washington Hallmark. Some have listed James Washington as a son of George and Lena Hallmark. This is not quite true, but blood wise it would be almost true. The second child was John. I never found anything more about him. The third child was Elizabeth. The fourth child was George. He was my ancestor. Thomas Hallmark was missing by 1805. What happened to him is unknown. The Indians may have killed him; he may have died of disease of whatever, It's all guess work.

Notes for Susannah Mynatt:

Notes from my branch of the Mynatt family by Fred McCaleb: Susannah Mynatt Hallmark married William Irwin in Knox County, Tennessee, DEC 10, 1805. I have a copy of the marriage license. She must have been pretty attractive to entice the young never married Bill Irwin, to marry her with four children by the Hallmark marriage. The Irwins moved to Elyton, Alabama (later called Birmingham) and raised the family.

Thomas Hallmark and Susannah Mynatt had the following children:

- i. JAMES WASHINGTON¹ HALLMARK was born on 04 Nov 1794 in Knox, Tennessee, United States. He died in 1876 in Louisiana, United States. He married REBBECA COTTINGHAM.

Notes for Thomas Hallmark:

[Brøderbund WFT Vol. 8, Ed. 1, Tree #1313, Date of Import: Jan 10, 1999]

Notice that Thomas hallmark married his Aunt Susanna Myatt. Thomas and Susanna lived in Fayette and Marion Co., Alabama

In My Branch of the Mynatt Family by Fred McCaleb, Fred states the following In 1790 George Hallmark was living close to his father in law, Richard Mynatt, in Knoxville, Tn. area. Richard would already be an old man in need of help. My theory is that George and Lena let their oldest son Thomas stay with his Grandparents to take care of the hard work of pioneer times. All the Mynatt children, other than Susana had already married and left home by 1791. The Mynatts were old and left with their last child which was a girl. So according to my thinking my ancestor Thomas Hallmark went to live with his grandparents. He and his young Aunt Susana, with was about his age, tried to take care of the old ones. Susana must have been an attractive girl and Thomas a handsome man. They fell in love.

They must have been married by 1794. Or did they marry at all? No marriage license was found in the Knox County, Tennessee Courthouse. But that doesn't mean they didn't get married. Their fist child was born , his name was James Washington Hallmark. Some have listed James Washington as a son of George and Lena Hallmark. This is not quite true, but blood wise it would be almost true. The second child was John. I never found anything more about him. The tird child was Elizabeth. The fourth child was George. He was my ancestor. Thomas Hallmark was missing by 1805. What happened to him is unknown. The Indians may have killed him; he may have died of disease of whatever, It's all guess work.

Notes for Corona Adaline Mynatt:

Corona Adaline Mynatt was the first born of William Rogers Mynatt and Margaret (Meltabarger) Mynatt. She was an accomplished and self taught musician. She played the piano, violin, guitar, banjo, ukulele, and French harp. She was a culinary artist. Her baked pastries were a vision of sight, smell and taste. "Addie" inherited her cooking skills from her Great-Great-Great Grandfather, Richard Mynatt, who was a pastry chef for Confederate General, Robert E. Lee's Father. She passed this talent to her Grandson, Marvin Fisher. He continues to use her recipes to this day. She was also an expert at sewing. She made quilts and comforts with tiny stitches, made new items of clothing from patterns, and could alter any type clothing. She loved the outdoors and her garden of vegetables. Her passion was fishing.

She was well read and educated. She was involved in the community and never had an enemy.

Notes for Earl Luther Mynatt:

Earl was a very reserved and gentle man. He went quietly about his business. As his Grandson, I lived next door to him with my Father, Sylvan. I remember him as a person that never showed any emotion toward me. Never kissed or hugged me. Never said anything to me. He died when I was 12 years old.

He was a Carpenter and owned and operated a custom butcher shop. He was respected by others in the community. His carpenter and butcher skills were of the highest quality, which resulted in and endless demand for his work.

In his later years he suffered from prostate cancer and Parkinson's disease. It wrecked his body and he had severe tremors. I remember him sitting on the front porch, shaking so hard he could hardly sit in the chair. In the end it also affected his mind.

Notes for James William Mynatt:

We regret to inform you the telegram read and our eyes filled with oceans of tears.
It didn't seem right that our Jim was dead
when we had him so many long years.
Why just yesterday he worked in the store here
till the Army called him that day.
With a smile on his face and a tearful goodbye proudly he marched away.
And though our hearts are lonely for him
we know he's gone to a better place.
