BELLEVILLE AND ONE OF ITS BOYS

(The Roy Pritchard Story)

Roy Horace Pritchard, son of William Henry and Laura Catherine (Day) Pritchard was born December 6 1903 at Belleville, Indiana. This was a nice place to be born. Besides parents there was sister Pearl eighteen years old, sister Elva fifteen years old and brother Leon almost four years old.

Sometimes the watchfulness of so many older ones curtailed would be adventures. But Roy learned to manage. At a fairly young age he attended uninvited, a party at Steve Brock's house. By bed time apprehension had really mounted and every one in town but the host household and guests were excitedly searching for the missing little boy with the blond curls and brown eyes.

Most of the yards were enclosed and many with pretty pickett fences that had a nice rail near the top. This was good for walking and practicing balance. Roy while thus engaged one evening, lost his footing and found himself hanging by one ankle between the fence and a thick Lilac bush. He was unable to reach the ground with his hands to free himself. In Lily's words "his mommy heard him holler and his daddy heard him squal", but it was not immediately that he was located and rescued.

Several Belleville houses had old time cellars with outside slanted doors which children used for slides. Pritchards house had such a door for which Roy could see other possibilities. He admired his father's skill in driving nails and proceeded hereon to practice that fascinating art by driving hundreds of nails into the boards of this door.

The Old National Road with the many maple trees arched overhead, made a wonderful place to play. On warm summer days three year old Roy frequently chose the middle of the street to play in the "sand" and sing at the top of his voice. Traffic was no problem. Other youngsters also entertained themselves in like manner, but the streets would clear like magic when the alarm was sounded, "Tom Hamrick's bull is out again!"

Neighbors like to meet the new babies of the Belleville families. Mrs. McKamey told Roy to bring Pearl's new baby over for her to see when it was at Pritchards. So the four year old Roy, like any proud uncle, put the infant nephew Gerald, into his little wagon and the two went visiting over to old Mrs. McKamey's. The boy and the baby did very well but it seemed rather upsetting to the mother and the grandmother.

Roy started grade school at Belleville. After Pritchards moved to the farm east of Center Valley, he attended Center Valley and Buffalo. Here, his sister Elva was his teacher. He graduated from high school at Clayton in 1921.

His first employment was with Fall Creek Manufacturing Company, a furniture factory at Mooresville. Roads would get so bad in winter that many times Roy was compelled to leave his car a mile or more from home and walk the remainder of the way home, after dark. The next morning before daylight he walked to the car and would be on his way to work.

On December 6, 1928, at the Salem Methodist Church he married Ruth Mitchell a daughter of Frank A. and Clara Ann (Perkins) Mitchell. Ruth was born April 26 1907 in Erwin Township of Howard County and moved with her parents to Liberty Township February 28, 1910. Ruth joined the Society of Friends at the North Branch meeting when Addison Reynolds was the pastor there.

Later she placed her membership in the Salem Methodist Church.

Ruth started grade school at Center Valley went the third year to Oak Ridge and five years to Hazelwood. She graduated from

Clayton High school in 1925 and She attended Central Normal College three terms

Her hobbies are quilt making, refinishing of furniture, reading and genealogy. She copied and helped alphabetize Hendricks County Voting Records 1826-1832; copied and alphabetized Hendricks County Tract Book; served twenty-one years as genealogical and reunion secretary of the Mitchell Family Organization and compiled The Genealogical Record of The Ancestors and Descendants of Perley and Phibe (Lewis) Mitchell of New England and Parke County Indiana. She also assisted Mrs. Audrey Fee of Faring slowa, in writing the Pritchard Family History. She is a Republican Precinct Committee Woman and has voted in every election since the Primary 1928.

Through "depression" years Roy had a small dairy and worked wherever employment could be found.
During this time in the summer of 1936 a wind and hail storm hit this part of the state and much damage was sustained by farmers in particular. The Pritchard barn was demolished, chimneys were torn from the house and windows broken. Instead of working to earn money he worked to build a barn
from salvaged lumber and to rebuild
the chimneys on the house.

In 1941 Roy started working at the Propeller Division of Curtis Wright Corporation in Indianapolis. In 1945 he began work at Hoffman Specialty Corporation and retired therefrom
in June 1972

In 1947 on January 4th the Pritchards moved to Amos and in November 1958 they moved into the house they were building in Belleville. Here they lived in the basement fourteen months while they were finishing the ground floor.

Pritchards are members of the Salem United Methodist Church. They are members of the Guilford Township, The Hendricks County and the State Historical Societies.

Pritchards are parents of one son Howard Leon Pritchard, born September 25, 1929. On July 30 1950 Howard married Iris Lee Keltner, born August 8, 1931 a daughter of Marwin and Stella (Matney) Keltner. Howard and Iris have two daughters Erin Lee (Pritchard) Troke born April 16 1955 and Janet Lynn Pritchard born August 5, 1956. Howard and Iris reside in Mooresville.
