David Reitsel, Hannah Reitsel, Margaret Reitsel, Daniel Reitsel and Adam Reitsel were children of Henry Reitsel born October 11, 1774 in Guilford County, North Carolina, and Catherine Moser born January 28, 1760 in Guilford County, North Carolina and who died June 12, 1826 in Guilford County, North Carolina.

This Adam Reitsel above was the grandfather of Eliza Reitsel Murrow, of 1124 6th Avenue, Des Moines, Iowa, who together with her husband, Charles Hazlan Murrow, secured information for this family record.

The Earliest known facts of the Reitzels who came to America from Germany has been handed down in the following tradition:

The ancestor Adam Reitzel I, a baron in Germany, was the father of Adam Reitzel II, who with his wife Margaret and little son Adam Reitzel III ~~arrived in~~ <sup>started to</sup> America about 1755.

Adam Reitzel III was born in Germany in 1751 near the Rhine River in Westphalia.

There is a story that Adam Reitzel II worked on the boat for the passage of himself and family, during a storm at sea he was sent up in the rigging of the ship and by being inexperienced he fell overboard and was lost at sea. His wife and child was brought to their port, where the services of the wife was sold at auction for so long a time for so much tobacco to pay the balance of their fare from the time the father fell overboard. The wife after serving her time took her child Adam Reitzel III and started for her people on foot, tiring and discouraged she abandoned the child once or twice by the wayside, but repenting she returned and took him and continued her journey to her people in Guilford County, North Carolina.

The widow of Adam Reitzel II who lost his life at sea, married first Henry Kime. They were the parents of the following named children:

- Phillip
- Henry
- Christian
- George

Her husband, Henry Kime, died and the widow married a man by the name of John Staley. John Staley died and the widow married a man by the name of Brown. To this union two children were born, a son and a daughter. Her husband ~~Brown~~, died. The widow then married a man by the name of John Murtzel. To this union two children were born:

- Christian Murtzel
- Mary Murtzel

The widow and John Murtzel died.
