

Joseph Tomlinson moved to Orange Co., IN. in 1819 and died there Nov. 23, 1820. He was a farmer.

Joseph Tomlinson's Widow took most of the children and started north to Morgan County. Some of the children were married in Morgan County. Jemima and the rest of the unmarried children moved to Hendricks Co. in Clay Township and joined the Mill Creek M M (Springtown) as a Charter member in 1834.

The names of the children that came with her were: James C. Tomlinson, Hiram G. Tomlinson, Moses Tomlinson, William Tomlinson, Joseph Tomlinson, Phineas Tomlinson, and Edward Bray Tomlinson. On arriving in Clay Twp. Hendricks Co. he was listed as a farmer, he owned lot #11 of block #5 in Hunt's addition to Springtown, Hendricks Co., IN. At his death the County, court ordered the land sold to pay the debts of the estate. Phineas A. Tomlinson, and a brother and a sister moved to Cartersburg where they lived until their death. This is Phineas A. Tomlinson's, Obit.

Well Known Cartersburg man dies

Phineas A. Tomlinson Died at Home of son, July 15th--Was Born Near
Amo, Lifelong Resident of County
Funeral Last Friday.

Funeral services for Phineas A. Tomlinson, age 83 years, of Cartersburg were held from the Methodist Church at Cartersburg last Friday afternoon and were in charge of Rev. Chalmer C. Harold, Pastor of the Plainfield Methodist Church. Mr. Tomlinson died Wednesday, July 15th of colitis, following a ten day illness, his death occurring at the home of his son Omer Tomlinson and with whom he had resided for many years. He was born at Springtown, near Amo, September 1, 1841 and was the eldest son of Edward Bray and Sarah Ann Osborn Tomlinson. When but a young man he came to Cartersburg, where the rest of his life was spent. Mr. Tomlinson saw much of the pioneer life of the county and was always deeply interested in it's growth and development although unassuming he always manifested the liveliest interest in his home community and was ever ready to lend his aid in supporting any worthy cause. In early manhood he united with the Methodist Church at Cartersburg and where he retained an active membership until his death.

He was married to Mary Elizabeth Hayden on Dec. 5, 1861 and who died Jan. 11, 1911 To them were born seven children. All living except two Mrs. Luella Williamson and James Tomlinson. Those surviving are Mrs. Cora Elma Osborn, and Mrs. J. L. Osborn, of Plainfield, Walter and Joseph of Indianapolis and Omer of Cartersburg, also survives. An only sister, Mrs. Lucy Powers of Cartersburg also survives. There are fourteen grandchildren and thirteen Greatgrandchildren. To his many friends and practically all of the residents of this community he was affectionately known as "Uncle Phineas."
