ADDENDA TO FAMILY GROUP SHEET NO. 41

RICHARD WARREN had been a London merchant. He joined the Leyden Pilgrims at Southampton in July, 1620, coming to the American Colonies in the Mayflower company which founded Plymouth Colony. The Register at the end of Governor Bradford's folio manuscript gives him the honorable prefix of "Mr.". He was mentioned by a contemporary as "grave Richard Warren, a man of integrity, justice, uprightness, of piety and serious religion;" and also as "a useful instrument during the short time he lived, bearing a deep share in the difficulties and troubles of the plantation." He served as assistant governor of the colony from 1624-28 and was a member of exploring parties along Cape Cod. He received land grants in common with his associates, one of these being at Warren's Cove. Richard's wife, "Mistress Elizabeth" and five children followed him to Plymouth in 1623 aboard the ship Ann.
