advisement in a way that looked hopeful for his acceptance. If he speaks here, Mr. Schortemeter said, the address will be a justification of the present administration.

Wealthy Land Owner Dead

JOHN A. MILES

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

PLAINFIELD, Ind., October 14.—John A. Miles, age seventy-six, a civil war veteran and a wealthy Hendricks county land owner, died last night at his home here. He was born on the National road near Belleville, and had lived in this county most of his life. Mr. Miles was a member of the Masonic lodge and the Christian church. He is survived by two sons, J. Harry Miles, of Plainfield, two daughters, Mrs. J. C. Reeder, of Plainfield, and Mrs. J. H. Thomas, of Indianapolis, and seven grandchildren. Funeral services will be held at the home Wednesday afternoon.

Prices realized on Swift & Co. sales of carcass beef in Indianapolis for week ending Saturday, October 15, on shipments sold out, range from 8c to 13 1/2c per lb. and averaged 10.44c per pound. Adv.

FUNERAL OF DR. WHITE

Appropriate and impressive services in honor of Dr. Charles A. White were held at the Methodist church Saturday afternoon. The wealth of flowers was but a small token of the love the community bore him. The services were in charge of Dr. Ernest Bailey Smith, of Chicago, assisted by Rev. Edward W. Strecker, of Rensselaer, and Mrs. Mary M. Harold. Mrs. Lilly Welshans sang with Mrs. Mary E. Wilhite at the organ. Thirty Union soldiers were present. Every town and township in the county were represented at the funeral and many were present from other points in the State and from other States. Many were unable to gain admission to the church.

AVON SCORES

When the Avon ball team asked for a game with Danville, Avon was given the merry ha-ha and told that Danville's team was too good to play with.
