THIRD GENERATION

Obituary. Collection of the family of Billie Jim Brown.
Another Good Citizen
Goes to His Reward.

Howard L. Sharp, one of the best known and highly respected citizens of Western Huntington, passed away at the home of his father-in-law, John Stouder, Sunday afternoon after a gradual decline in health covering a period of about three years. The beginning of his decline dated from an injury received about three years ago when his team which was drawing a heavy load of hay to town, became frightened on the summit of the Heiney hill and ran away. By a great effort he managed to keep the team in the road until coming up the hill at the Methodist church where the horses turned to the side of the road crashing into a telephone pole. Mr. Sharp fell to the ground from the top of the load and sustained injuries from which he never fully recovered.

On account of the inability to perform the hard labor demanded on his farm he was obliged to give up the farm duties. His also being in poor health at the time they moved to Lebanon, Kansas, where he became engaged in a mercantile business. Mrs. Sharp's health was greatly benefitted but he began to fail and a few months ago they returned here to reside with Mrs. Sharp's father, in whose home he died.

The cheerful disposition with which he was fortunately endowed and which made him many friends was conspicuous in his manner during his recent suffering which was passed without a murmur, having a sincere faith in the promise of his Mastre.

Howard L. sharp was a son of George G. and Ann Sharp and was born at Dora, Wabash county, Indiana, February 16, 1873; died March 5, 1911, at the age of 38 years 19 days. He graduated from the Andrews High School in the class of 1891, and from the teachers' course of the Ridgeville Normal college. For a number of years he was a teacher in the public schools of Huntington county and was always interested in the educational interests of the community. In 1894 he was united in marriage to Nora Stouder and to them were born two daughters, Lucile, aged fourteen and Marie aged six, who with their mother are left to mourn the untimely death of this loved one. He leaves three brothers, William and Isaac of Andrews and Ray of Smith Center, Kansas. He was a member of Golden Rule Lodge Knights of Pythias and the Uniform Rank of Knights of Pythias. He was a member of the Christian church and so far as his health permitted was an active and earnest member.

The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Christian church, Rev. F. D. Durham preaching the sermon and the Knights of Pythias in charge, interment being made in Riverside.
