Isaac J. Wood, oldest son of Ellis and Martha Wood was born in Shelby County, Indiana, November 5, 1850, and after suffering a cerebral hemorrhage, despite all that loving hands and a doctor's skill could do passed from out midst September 27, 1925, he being at that time 74 years, 10 mos and 22 days of age.

He was the oldest of a family of five, two brothers, James Wood and Joseph Wood and two sisters, Amanda and Mary Elizabeth, having preceded him in death. He came with his parents to Hendricks County in 1869 and lived in the same neighborhood for the balance of his earthly life.

He was united in marriage to Annetie Kendall, February 18, 1872 and to this union were born nine children, all of whom are living. Charles H., John E., and William E., Oscar E., Claude M., Albert N., Vergil C. Leona and Irene, having blessed their life, all being married excepting two, Chas. and Claude. Claude makes his home with his parents and Charles with his brother. While having never united with a church he was always a firm believer in that heavenly being, who rules the universe.

He was a faithful companion, loving and kind father. He had many friends in the neighborhood in which he lived and was always willing to assist his neighbors in any need. His life has always showed plainly that his heart was clean and his dealings in business affairs have always showed that. He leaves to mourn his departure, his loving wife, nine children and seventeen grandchildren, besides other relatives and many friends.

Funeral services were held at the home Tuesday evening with Rev. Butler in charge. Burial was at Spring Hill Cemetery at Cartersburg.

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me,
And may there be no moaning at the bar,
When I put out to sea.

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound or foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep,
Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark,
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark.

For tho' from out bourne of Time and Place

and for all of the beautiful floral offerings.

Mrs. Isaac Wood and children.

 Skies always blue,
 Flower-strewn pathways
 All our lives through;
 God hath not promised
 Sun without rain,
 Joy without sorrow,
 Peace without pain.

But God hath promised
 Strength for the day,
 Rest for the labor,
 Light for the way,
 Grace for the trials,
 Help from above,
 Unfailing sympathy
 Undying love.

A Little Step Away
To close the eye, to fall asleep, &
To draw a labored breath,
To find release from daily cares
In what we know as death...

Is this the crowning of a life,
The aim or end thereof?
The totaled sum of consciousness,
The ripened fruit of love?

It cannot be, for works of God
Are wrought for nobler ends,
And those away continue on
In the hearts of kin and friends.

It cannot be, for they live on
A little step away, &
The soul, & the everlasting life,
Has found a better day....

 To close the eye, to fall asleep,
 To draw a labored breath,
 To find release from daily cares
 In what we know as death...

Is this the crowning of a life,

 The ripened fruit of love?
