As a boy the stories I heard my grandfather tell were of - Helping burn brick to build the big, two story house we use to pass on the way to Linton. It was east of Woodward Cemetery Jeff Twp Sul Co. As a young man he helped in Kansas wheat harvests mined coal, and shucked corn in Illinois. Later, he owned coal mines with partners including Early Mason, his brother-in-law. They had bought a ranch in Oklahoma and planned to move there, but changed his mind when Anna died. His father-in-law had died and Amelia came to live with them. They moved to Haddon Twp where he bought the Land farm. I remember him as about 5-8 and about 150 lbs. He attended

The Church of Christ at Paxton during my memory -- as a boy he had gone to Shiloh Church of Christ where his father was an elder and probably a charter member. He was called "Uncle Sep" by most of the people in the community and was highly respected. He had a peach orchard and apple orchard on the farm and liked to peddle door to door in Sullivan. He died at home after a series of strokes. Uncle Early Mason came from Oklahoma City to visit and help take care of him that summer.
