telling that his funeral should be held there. Even so, it was still "after the manner of Friends" and a very nice service. Burial was in Sugar grove cemetery south west of Cambridge.
Grove Monday afternoon they had shown the cemetery records which he and Willard St. Peier, of Indianapolis, had just completed indexing.

Re: Ricketts. Whether was married by a Mitchell family, de-scended from ship-building Whitebells of Rhode Island. One early member was Jacobus Mitchell.

Do you happen to have any information regarding the following families (family, Howard (Gues) Case to be found 1899; Milhouse - Copeland 1910; or Richardson 1943?
Willard also inquired concerning them and did not state what he derived family names by these names.
He had been compiling a card index of all the Friends meetings that he has visited in Indiana and I pursue the above families are wanted for information they may contain along those lines. It is also possible they are of ancestors of his of Virginia?

Do you have a record as to whether or not Benjamin and Mary (Tanager) Morris were still Friends at the time of their deaths? According to an 1850 map of Ind. Mo. and Indiana, the district in Mo. to appear to have been the one at Whitaker, Ind.

Uncle Lorn and Aunt Belva were here Monday afternoon and found out one at home. Stouner had gone to see one of the ladies here in Grove St. was over to the apple house at Belleville a while, but Uncle Stouner!

We were saying we missed seeing them.
Aunt Stouner stays about the same. I thought Uncle Stouner didn't look quite so dark around his eyes as last time I saw him.
