Another year is under way,
Classes call students from summer play.
Newcomers quickly seem to know
A senior or junior from a freshman low.

But class distinction gives way to unity;
Quakers join organizations eagerly,
Looking ahead to days filled with fun,
Study and play for everyone.

Fall

Wonderful days in the fall of the year!
At homecoming, yelleaders giving a cheer;
Young faces, old faces straining to see
A long run, a touchdown, then a P.A.T.

First production is lauded by all,
Then the annual dance held in the fall.
Yes, the halls and classrooms fill with sound,
As the autumn leaves drift to the ground.

F.H.A. FALL PROM

The Fall Prom was held November 11 in the Public Service Co. auditorium. Music was provided by Ray Edwards' band. The members of the royal court (shown above) were Mary Lou Lane, freshman; Queen Diane Crews, sophomore; Ann Turner, junior; and Joyce Wampler, senior. At left, the candidates and their escorts wait patiently as Toastmaster Mark Hampton announces the queen. Little Ruthie Pickett was the crown-bearer.

Queen Peggietta

Princess Andy

A bonfire, parade, queens, football game and dance highlighted homecoming activities on October 4, 1957. Queens Janet Agan and Peggietta Happel reigned. In the royal court were Princesses Andrea Klingensmith and Kathy Kellum. The winning float was entered by the class of '59. Disc-jockey Vic Knight of radio station WXLW provided music for the sock-hop following the game.

The cheerleaders led a pep session around the bonfire.

The dance was the highlight of the evening.

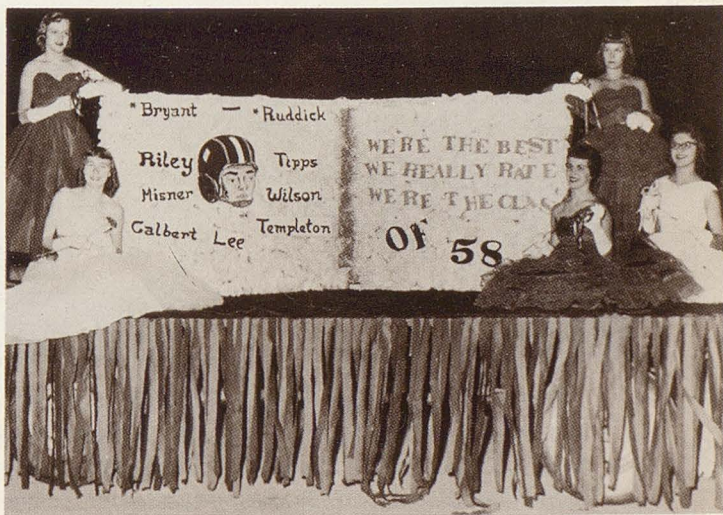

The freshman float proposed a good "cleaning".

The sophomores featured a clever idea.

Winning junior float!

Seniors expressed pride in their class.

Every spring when flowers appear,
We start to think of the coming year:
Sports and plays and many dances,
Picnics and parties, and, of course, romances.

Our athletes—short, fat, skinny, or tall—
Easily receive admiration from all.
But they're always so happy not to pay,
When they're asked to our own W.P.A.

Spring

Strolls and parties and, of course, the plays
Fill the springtime with fun-packed days.
The reception, so heavenly, is not to be missed,
With starry-eyed couples stealing a kiss.

Graduation time is the highlight of the year;
Some meet it with a smile, some with a tear;
But freshmen through seniors look back with regret
O're high school years they'll never forget.

Student Council Career Day

The annual Career Day, sponsored by the Student Council, is a comparatively new activity which is eagerly looked forward to each year by the student body.

On that day representatives of many professions and businesses are in the school to discuss pros and cons of their respective vocations.

The program is an all day affair. In the morning students attend two meetings--their first and second vocational choice. In the afternoon all students and the representatives meet in the gym for a summary meeting. Pictures show some of the many professions represented on March 12, Career Day.

Basketball in winter; football in fall;
 Warm spring weather brings track and baseball.
 But clubs and organizations start in high gear
 And continue to function all through the year.

Juniors and seniors roam the hall,
 Their days as freshmen they recall.
 Freshmen and sophomores eagerly await
 The time that they will set the gait.

All Through The Year

Our clubs and activities are profuse,
And in our training have their use
Preparing all, from officers down,
To meet problems with a smile not a frown.

In this last section of the book,
Pause and take a lingering look
At all the pictures that appear
Depicting the happenings through the year.

Various sports interest . . .

These girls have won their state plaques: Joyce Wampler, Nancy Lewis, Mary Stafford, Carolyn Parsons, Mildred Warren, and Sue Jones. Each girl had to have 350 points or more to get her award. Miss Snider is the sponsor of G.A.A.

The Girl's Athletic Association, which was organized in 1948, encourages any girl in high school to participate in several kinds of athletics such as basketball, baseball, deck tennis, line soccer, badminton, volley ball, speed ball and archery.

Points may be earned from participating in these activities. A pin is awarded for 50 points, a letter for 250, a state plaque for 350 and a white sweater for 500. The awards are presented to the girls at a Mothers and Daughters Banquet held in the spring.

The purpose of this organization is to keep girls physically fit.

Officers elected for the year were Judy Smock, Treasurer; Judy Misner, Recorder; Andy Klingensmith, Secretary; Sharon Sims, Vice-President; and Sandy Leach, President.

J.C.L.

The Junior Classical League was organized in Plainfield in 1956-1957 and has a total of 50 members. Each member belongs to the National Junior Classical League sponsored by the American Classical League. This membership indicates "a desire to hand on the torch of classical civilization to the modern world."

An initiation of 23 members was carried out at a slave auction at the first meeting of the year.

Various activities of the year include singing Latin songs, pledging the flag in Latin, making Roman costumes, staging plays, holding a Roman banquet, and enjoying a Saturnalia party at Christmas time.

F.T.A.

The Future Teachers of America was organized to encourage high school students to develop the character and personality necessary for teaching.

The F.T.A. pledge states, "A good teacher requires physical vitality, mental vigor, moral discrimination, knowledge, and leadership."

F.T.A. has grown rapidly since its organization in Plainfield in 1953. The total membership is 43.

The purpose of F.T.A. is to familiarize the teaching profession to anyone who might be interested. Through this organization, teaching experience is gained by the student teacher program.

Officers are Margaret Johnson, President; Beth Hadley, Secretary; Mrs. Masten, Sponsor; Sue Jones, Vice President; Nancy Lewis, Librarian; and Lelia Powell, Treasurer.

Future Homemakers boast . . .

Rita Hardin and Sylvia Bauer are Co-Chairmen of the Future Homemakers of America honor chapter requirements. Their responsibilities are to supervise the large task of making us an honor chapter. Sue Magee honors our organization in holding the office of District Editor.

The Plainfield Chapter of Future Homemakers was organized twelve years ago and has grown rapidly since. The F.H.A.ers sponsor a Fall Prom, a W.P.A. Dance, and a Work Day. At Christmas time they visit the Methodist Orphanage at Lebanon, Ind., plan the program, and take gifts to each child. The senior chapter of F.H.A. has organized a junior chapter, which will consist of freshmen and eighth grade girls. This organization not only provides individual and group recreation, but it promotes a growing appreciation toward homemaking.

Some of the chapter activities include a parent and son banquet and judging events such as land, livestock, and dairy teams.

In the spring members participate in parliamentary procedure and district essay contests.

This organization provides opportunities for the vocational agriculture student to develop leadership and citizenship.

Boys' Athletic Association

All boys at Plainfield High not participating in school organized sports are eligible to belong to the Boys' Athletic Association. The objectives are to give skill and knowledge in sports, to provide leisure time activities, and to develop good physical conditioning. The B.A.A. is under the sponsorship of Mr. Toon and Mr. Shore.

Officers are Mr. Toon, Sponsor; Wayne Stanley, Treasurer; Ronnie Richardson, Secretary; Al Turner, Vice-President; Don Sharer, President; and Mr. Shore, Sponsor.

Sunshine strives to give cheer . . .

The main purpose of the Sunshine Society is to spread good cheer, sunshine, and happiness to the sick and needy. At Christmas time the members visit the Hendricks County Home and take gifts to the old folk. At Thanksgiving, a potted plant is sent to the nursing home in Plainfield, and in the spring the chapter makes a cash donation to the Riley Cheer Fund. This fund is made up from the contributions of all chapters over the state, and the money received is used to buy equipment for the Riley Hospital.

An annual dance sponsored by the Sunshine Society is the "Mistletoe Hop", which was held at Public Service on December 28. Jerry Chapman from WIRE spun the records.

The formal initiation for the new members is held in the late fall. This year twenty-two new members were initiated, making a total membership of seventy-five. During the first of May a tea is held in honor of the Ideal Ladies and Mothers. At the tea an award is given to the girl chosen the Ideal Senior Sunshine Girl.

The officers of the Sunshine Society are Sharon Sims, Corresponding Secretary; Sue Jones, Recording Secretary; Mrs. Barnes, Sponsor; Linda Smock, Treasurer; Barbara Clark, Vice-President; and Carolyn Parsons, President.

Honor Society

Members of the Honor Society are chosen from the junior and senior classes by the high school teachers. Only a small percentage of juniors and seniors are taken; entrance is based upon leadership, service, character, and scholarship.

As in the years before, the Plainfield chapter of National Honor Society held its annual Sample Fair, the proceeds from which go into a loan fund for eligible seniors. They also present the $25 Girard Award to the senior who, at the end of four years, has the highest average in mathematics.

Speech Club

The Speech Club is a new organization at P.H.S. this year. One purpose for forming the club was to eliminate class plays and thus to give interested and talented students an opportunity to participate in forensic and dramatic activities for all four years in high school.

The two most important projects of the club are the spring and fall play productions; however, members participated in several speech festivals throughout the state.

The Debate Club is an outgrowth of the Speech Club. For the first time at P.H.S., students tried their skill at debating. Interest in the art is growing, and while the schedule was light but very successful this year, it is hoped that in the future debate will be an important part of school life at P.H.S.

Vocal Music Ensemble and Chorus

Under the direction of a new music teacher, Mr. Metcalf, the music department has reached new heights. The chorus sang often at programs and convocations, and the Ensemble and Boys' Octet both represented the school at the state music contest after winning first ratings at the district. The Octet, consisting of the eight boys in Ensemble, is accompanied by Harry Swarn, and the chorus and Ensemble are accompanied by Mary Arnold.

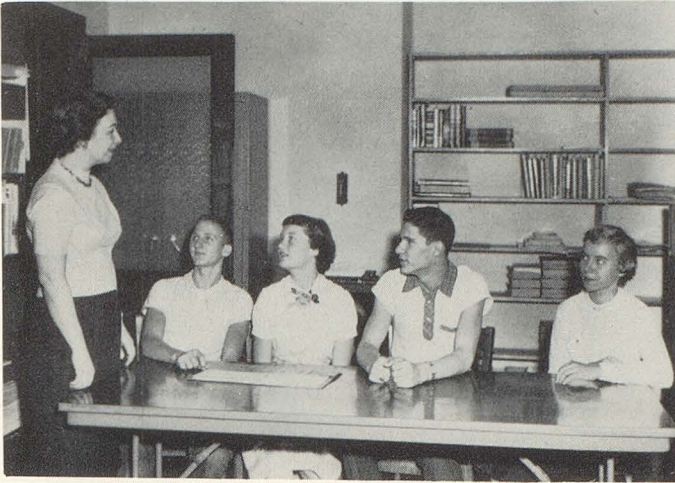

Members of the Ensemble are TOP ROW: J. Bloomer, F. Weddle. SECOND ROW: H. Swarn, Accompanist; J. Edmondson. THIRD ROW: D. Lee, M. Hampton, D. Sharer, J. Baldwin. FOURTH ROW: J. Pickett, J. Misner, B. Clark, K. Dunigan. FIFTH ROW: J. White, J. Smock, M. Sharp, J. Jones, and M. Arnold, Accompanist.

Chorus members are TOP ROW: F. Bennett, L. Wright, D. Lee, M. Hampton, J. Baldwin, H. Swarn, R. Simpson, D. Sharer, F. Goff, J. Bloomer, F. Weddle, J. Edmondson. SECOND ROW: Mr. Metcalf, Director; N. Student Council

Student Council Officers are Mrs. Haines, Sponsor; Joe Vance, Vice President; Carolyn Leech, Secretary; John Wilson, President; and Janice Craige, Treasurer.

The Student Council, having a new plan of representation this year, is composed of the class officers from the freshman and sophomore classes and the vice-presidents and three elected representatives from the junior and senior classes.

This organization has charge of home-coming activities, sponsors a Leadership Conference, and organizes a Career Day.

Through them a committee, composed of both students and teachers, is chosen to plan convocations for the school year.

The Student Council also discusses and tries to solve problems relating to the school and student body.

Science Club

The Science Club is now in its fourth year as an organization at Plainfield High. Sponsored by Mr. Lemme, the club has had a successful year.

The main activities of the organization are participating in science fairs, exchanging scientific ideas, and developing individual projects.

Officers for the year were David Gorman, Secretary; Dean Cooper, President; and Jerry Edmondson, Vice-President.

Juniors

At last, after two long years, they were upper-classmen! The juniors, under the leadership of their officers—Don Sharer, president; Joe Baldwin, vice-president; Sandy Klingensmith, secretary; and Nan Getchell, treasurer—had a full and exciting year. Class rings, ordered in the fall, were eagerly awaited and, when they finally arrived, worn proudly by everyone. Planning for the reception began late in the fall and occupied junior thoughts from then on. At homecoming festivities, the juniors walked away with the float award for the third straight year, an unprecedented record. Class sponsors were Mrs. Haines, Mr. Lemme, Mrs. Masten, and Mrs. Truax.

Sophomores

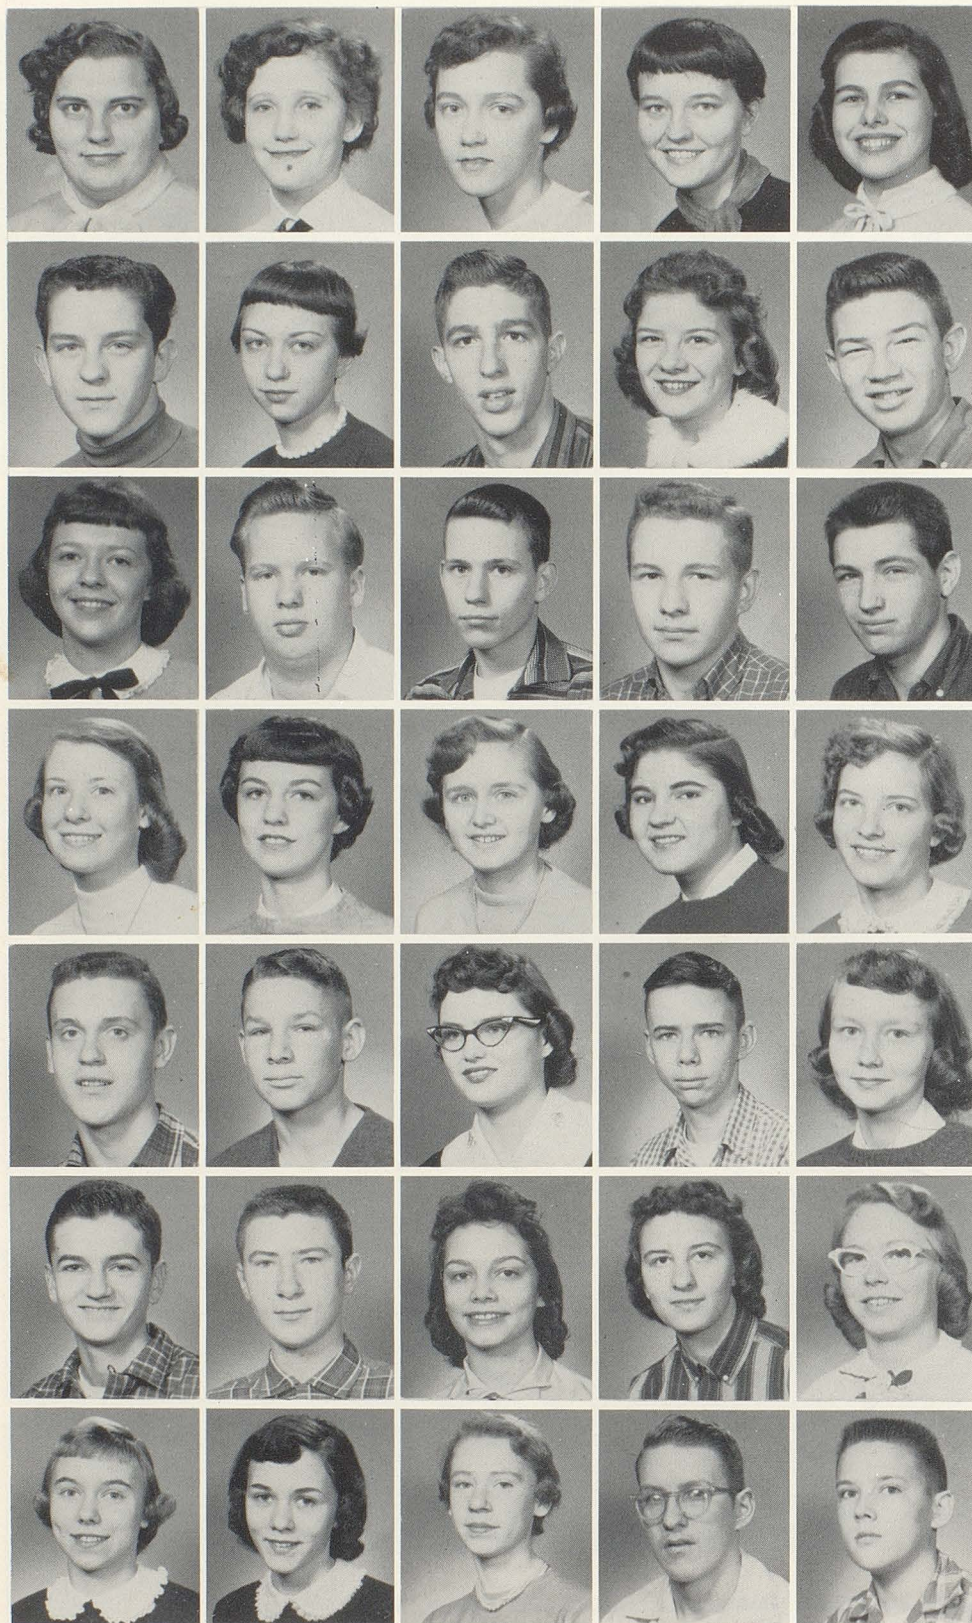

The sophomore class was the one class with little extra-curricular activity. They were not green freshmen anymore; they were not upperclassmen either; but when it came to queens, they took the sweepstakes. Peggietta Happel, Homecoming Queen, was the first to be crowned. Then at the Fall Prom a crown was placed on the head of another Sophomore, Diane Crews. Since they had little activity, they must have spent their time studying. The Sophomores had more students on the honor roll than any other class. Officers chosen to head the class were Joe Vance, President; Dorothy Barnaby, Secretary; Janice Craige, Treasurer; and Carolyn Leech, Vice-President. Sponsors were Mrs. Kellum, Miss Snider, Mrs. Sanderson, Mrs. Craig, and Mr. Bond.

Freshmen

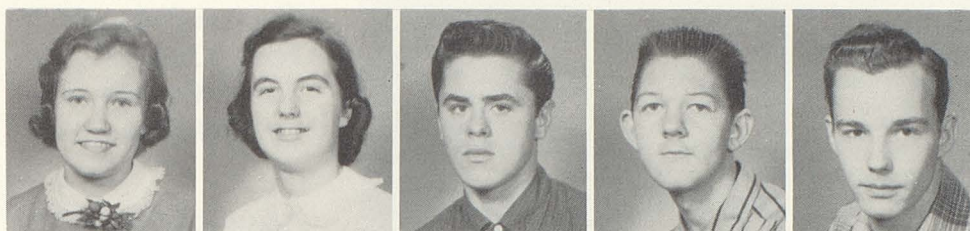

The freshmen have gradually become used to high school life. They've made their first home-coming float, elected their first queen candidates-Kathy Kellum and Mary Lou Lane-and have attended their first high school parties. Class officers for the year were Marilyn Sharpe, Vice-President; Kay Welch, Secretary; Eddie Cook, President; and Charles Greene, Treasurer. The sponsors were Mrs. Hadley, Mrs. Niles, and Mr. Toon.
