seven children, as follows—Marion, Sallie, Frank C., Robert P., Ruth A., Joseph M. and Austin L. In 1854 Mr. McVey came with his family to Hendricks County, Ind., and resided for two years in Middle Township, when he returned to his native State, remaining there one year. He then lived a short time in Cass County, Mo., and in 1858 returned to this county and settled in Union Township. Being a man of remarkable energy and industry he converted what was at the time of his settlement a swamp into a good yielding farm. He added to his original property from time to time until, at the time of his death, he owned 580 acres. For several years he dealt quite extensively in stock, and for about nineteen years was a partner in a large cotton press manufacturing establishment at Mobile, Ala. He served for a short time as Justice of the Peace. He was a member of the Masonic fraternity. His death occurred Sept. 19, 1871. His widow resides on the old homestead, and is the owner of 100 acres of well-improved land.

James E. Montgomery, a pioneer of Union Township, was born in Morgan County, Ky., in May, 1813. His parents, William and Sarah Montgomery, came to Hendricks County, Ind., in 1828, settling in the woods, on the farm now owned by our subject, where they experienced all the hardships and privations of pioneer life. James E. has followed agricultural pursuits from his youth, and now owns eighty acres of land. He was married to Rebecca Tharp, who is now deceased. She was a daughter of the late John Tharp, of this county. They were the parents of seven children, of whom only two, John and Ella, survive. Mr. Montgomery is a member of the Methodist Episcopal church.

Anderson Odorn is a native of Catawba County, N. C., born March 29, 1848, a son of Eli and Michel Odorn. He was reared in his native State, and there married Jemima Shook. They have had six children, five of whom are living—William A., Ova S., John H., Simeon and Lillie. In March, 1875, Mr. Odorn left North Carolina and moved to Indiana, locating in Marion County, where he lived till February, 1881, when he moved to Hendricks County, and settled in the northern part of Union Township, where he owns a good farm of 126 acres. He is an enterprising citizen and has assisted materially in the improvement of the land in his neighborhood. In politics he is a Democrat.

David Osborn, a pioneer of Union Township, was born in Virginia, Feb. 11, 1812, a son of Richard and Rachel Osborn. When he was a child his parents moved to Guilford County, N. C., where
