Here's Looking at You!

Plainfield High School was worth looking at in the 1992-1993 school year. ISTEP scores improved and state recognition was passed our way. Our school corporation's values program drew attention to a school community willing to express and teach its values. Our guaranteed graduate program and international computer link-ups brought more recognition. The choirs and the band and the sports teams and the academic teams, as well as individuals with scientific knowledge or public speaking ability and many, many others brought honor to our school community. Quakers, here's looking at you in 1992 and 1993 . . . and in the future.

Below: A not too frequent sight in the cafeteria are Mr. Strauss, Mr. Wakefield, and Mr. Houghland working the serving line.

RED P

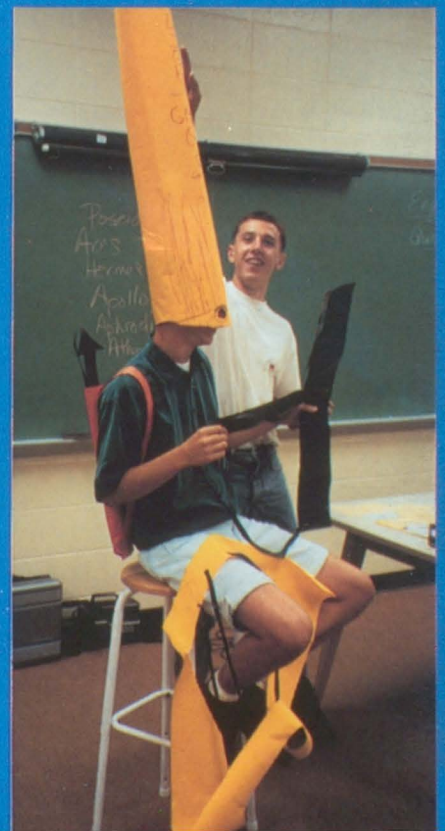

Out of the Ordinary!

This was the year that revitalized Red Pride—a pride and involvement in all aspects of high school life. Parent and student involvement reached an all time high. A plea to parents to be more involved resulted in a new career center manned by volunteers. Pride and involvement in our school became apparent when the football bleachers were full and the basketball fans all wore red. More students were active at school academically and with extra-curricular activities, including an intramural sports program. There's nothing ordinary about a school that can provide so much to so many.

Classes & A Lot More!

PHS was about classes. The academics were there—requirements and electives; but in addition to those long “boring” lectures, there were other aspects of education such as group projects, simulation games, heated class discussions, along with field trips and guest speakers. But, besides the academics, there was more. There were extra-curricular drama, music, academic and sports programs. But there was still more. There were the people—administrators, teachers, counselors and students who shared all these same experiences. Believe it or not, there was a lot more!

Fads & Fashions

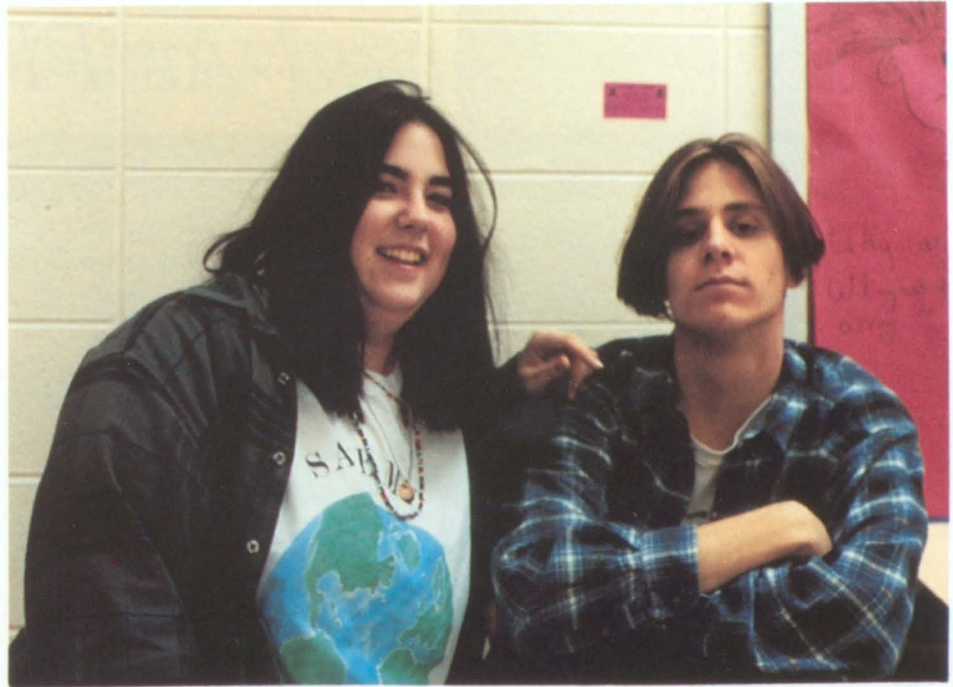

Trends—Clothes, Movies & Music

Right: A renewed interest in school spirit is apparent at the Hoosier Dome as Mike Anderson shares his face paint with Brian Redding. Below: At one of many school dances, Debbie Webster, Julie Clark and Missi Biggerstaff sport dress pants, tailored blouses and dressy short sets.

Above: Brian Laubacher's team of choice is the Chicago White Sox as he wears that team's logo. Right: Ties are not only fashionable for the guys but Mandi Reeves wears a colorful print tie for the winter homecoming festivities.

For Michelle Johnson and Matt Skirvin, the clothing fad of choice is the popular flannel shirt, which appeared in a variety of styles including shirts with various plaid patterns and hoods.

Brand names, as always, topped the fashion list for the 92-93 school year. Guess jeans ranked at the top of the list. Brand name athletic shoes were still a must, except when they were replaced once in a while with Eastland boots. BOSS, BUM and college wear led the t-shirt and sweatshirt market. Team apparel, especially the coveted Starter logo, included shirts, jerseys, coats, jackets and sweatshirts. When the "dressy" mood hit, for guys it was dress pants or jeans with silk shirts and thin ties. The girls went for dress pants or jeans with a t-shirt or blouse under an oversized blazer. Skirts and dressy shorts also topped the fashion list.

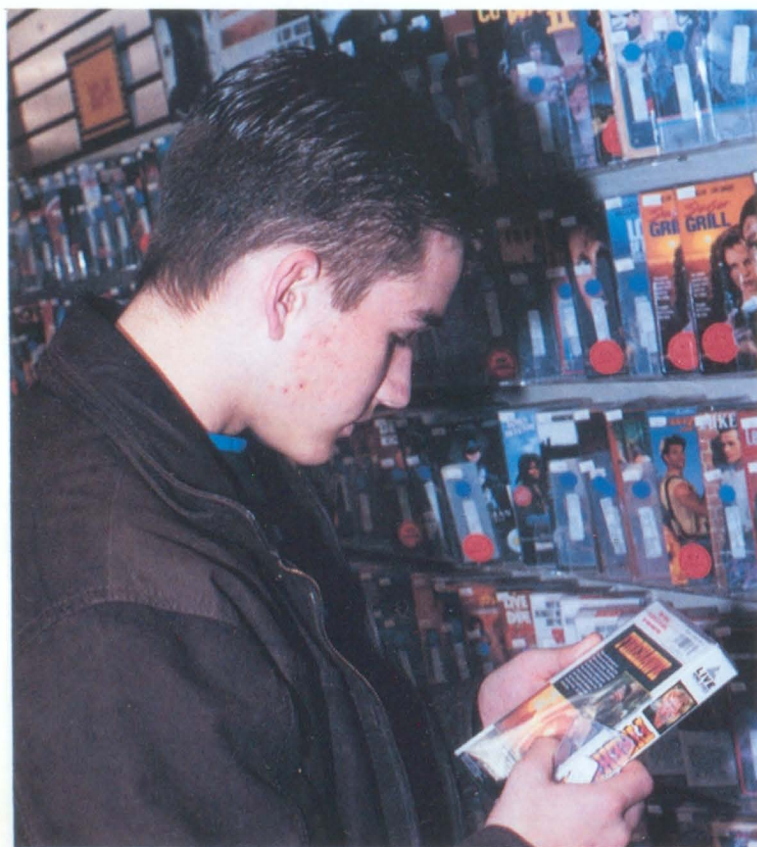

Fads other than clothes hit as well. The movie Wayne's World was a big hit and was even bigger when it hit the video stores and cable TV. The movie created a renewed interest in the music of Queen from the '70's. Other music trends for many changed from rap and rock to country, including Garth Brooks and Billy Ray Cyrus' "Achy Breaky Heart." Activities seemed more school oriented as school spirit, Red Pride apparel and intramural sports worked their way back into popularity.

Jobs

Jobs As Varied As PHS Students

Manning the cash register, Lori Padgett shouts orders into the microphone at Burger King.

A job—a necessary evil for many PHS students. Whether the money went for the prom, a new CD or new Guess jeans, many students found it necessary to have a part-time job. Probably some of the money went for such luxuries, but more likely it went to pay for the car, the gas, or the insurance to keep that car on the road.

Student jobs tended to be local. Fast food restaurants topped the list for most common employer but students were found working at grocery stores, car dealers, beauty shops and hardware stores. Although teachers weren't always crazy about the hours students worked, many students found it either a desirable or necessary pastime.

Holidays

Holidays Attract Participation

As the year began, holidays and vacations from school were plentiful. Labor Day provided students and teachers with a three day weekend. By late October fall break rolled around. A favorite holiday at PHS was Halloween. Costumes were abundant as students and teachers took advantage of the opportunity to dress up. A four day weekend was appreciated at Thanksgiving, but the Christmas season brought out decorations and activities galore in the halls of PHS. President's Day gave everyone the chance to sleep in for an extra day, but the "un-holiday" of spring break was the one most anxiously anticipated. Once past Easter, the countdown was not directed as much toward Memorial Day as to the long awaited summer vacation.

Juniors and seniors are given the opportunity to hear about first hand college experiences from PHS graduates who are home for Christmas break.

Float Building

Busy Week Limits Float Time

Below: A group of seniors including Matt Morris, Kyle Carpenter, Laura Schaible, Nikki Shore and Justin Wilkey work to construct the frame for the giant football that is the focal point of their float entry.

Float building—the art of creating in one week a respectable looking wood, wire and paper display to fit on the back of a pick up truck. Oh, and don't forget the theme, the limit on funds spent and having sponsors on the site during working hours.

And so it began. The Student Council selected the overall theme game shows and from there, each class president went to work with sponsors, fellow officers and classmates to choose an individual float theme. The toughest part of float building this year was working it into a busy week of athletic events, spirit night, the bonfire and the ever-present homework.

Enthusiasm Obvious For Sporting Events

Right: The egg toss creates a little tension on the face of junior Bree Harbin as she wonders whether to catch it or back away from it. Below: Falling short, but not really minding the pie in the face are seniors Justin Wilkey and Mellissa Kuner.

Above: Brett Smith, Jeni Bond and Burt Robertson demonstrate that school spirit and participation can be dirty business. Right: To master the art of the three legged race, Ryan Cobb and Blake Greene concentrate on putting one "leg" forward at a time.

Below: Silhouetted against the roaring bonfire is varsity cheerleader Stacy Leach.

Cheerleaders, Student Council, the Spirit Club, the Red Pride Adult Booster Club, and the teams, along with students, faculty, and administrators, combined to put the pride back in Red Pride.

Spirit night competition included a jelly bean hunt and tug of war, but students came not just to watch but also to participate. Pep sessions included all teams and all athletes for that season. Entertainment featured less physical competitions, with the exception of the slam dunk contest, but new activities were tried. The Price Is Right was a fun new addition with the assistance of Mr. Chris Cavanaugh. Spirit weeks still brought out the crazies in the wardrobe department. Spring break, clash day, and hat day were very popular. Red, white and blue day remained the standard game day attire.

Faculty members Mr. Chris Cavanaugh, Mr. Jim Latta, Miss Teri Carpenter, Mr. Brad Roberts, Mr. Bill Strauss, Mrs. Judy Jackson, Miss Lynne Kinzer, Mr. Rod Chandler, Mrs. Carol Kellogg, and Mrs. Jackie Carrigan try to create a little bonfire spirit with "We've got spirit. Yes we do. We've got spirit. How 'bout you?"

Homecoming

Quakers Win Big Over Woodmen

Right: During pregame activities, band member Ben Kern performs. Below: A large crowd gathers at the bonfire to cheer on the Quakers and enjoy the cider and doughnuts provided by the PHS PTO.

The pregame festivities included the band's performance and the arrival of the game ball as delivered by parachutist Tony Hathaway. Halftime festivities included the crowning of Janeen Taylor as homecoming queen. Her escort was Jim Rinehart. Other senior candidates were Ryan Dodds, escorted by Brett Hesson, and Cher Gallagher, escorted by Dave Gibbs. The junior nominees for princess were Robin Reardon, Stacy Winegar and Stacy Wubbolding; the junior escorts were Chris DiPasquale, James Hilton and Mike Mason. Stacy Winegar was chosen as princess. Farrah Hardin, escorted by Matt Dodd, was chosen by the sophomores; Alison Hardin, escorted by Andy Dodd, and Laura Smith, accompanied by Derrick Hutchens, were the other sophomore contestants. The freshman nominees were Amber Blevins, escorted by Mike Young; Stephanie Kurtz, escorted by Jade Haynes; and Jenny Whisler, escorted by Nick Catlin. The freshman vote totals indicated Stephanie Kurtz as the winner. Other halftime results gave the juniors second place and the sophomores first place for their float entry based on the game show theme.

After the 37-13 victory over Mooresville, students and graduates picked up yearbooks and headed for the dance.

Below: Heading for the center of the field to meet the referee and several opponents, Chris Hummel, Wade LaRoche and Burt Robertson take care of pregame business.

Powder Puff

Freshmen and Juniors Victorious

At the annual powder puff contest, freshman Mike Young, sophomore JT Volz, junior Jim Holsclaw, and senior Jeff Fine have the dubious honor of being selected to represent their classes.

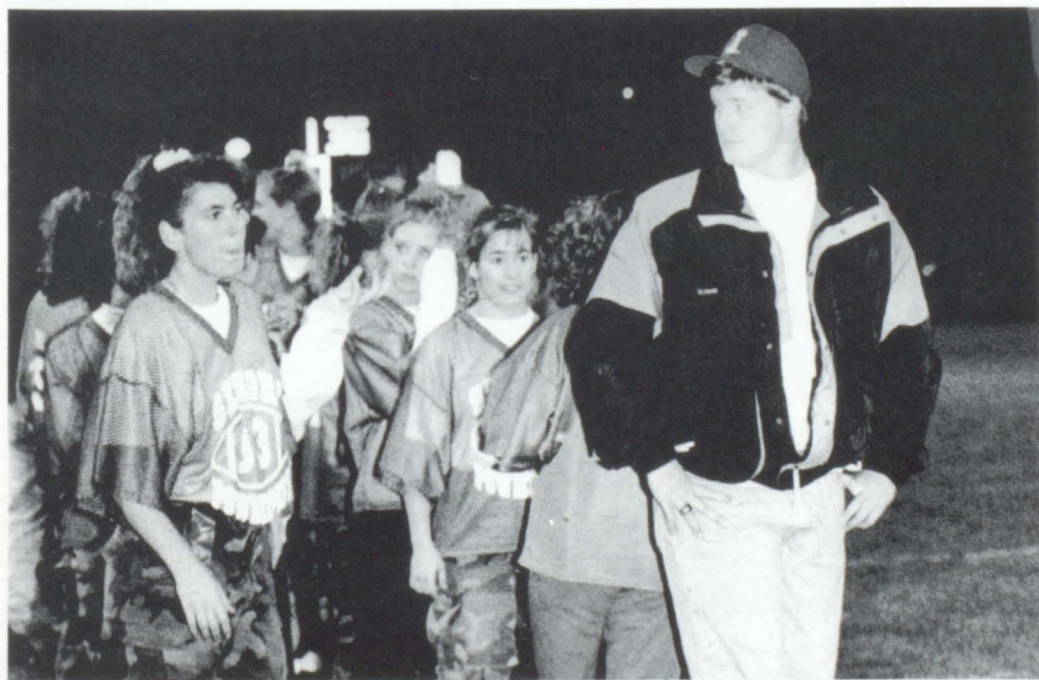

Above: The help of students Brent Baker and Kyle Busick was required on the sidelines with yard and down markers.

The annual powder puff bash was held late in October. The contest featured a 6-0 freshman victory over the sophomores. The ladies of the junior class took a slim 21-20 victory over the seniors.

The evening's highlight was halftime. Mike Young, escorted by Jackie Stackman, was the freshman prince selection; Jade Haynes, escorted by Amber Blevins and Nick Catlin, escorted by Mindy Staley, were the other freshmen candidates. Alison Hardin escorted sophomore prince JT Volz while Ashley Plagman and Sarah Carver escorted candidates Dave Schaible and Andy Dodd. Stacy Leach accompanied Eric Hartman, Stacy Wubbolding escorted Mike Mason, and Stacy Winegar walked with junior prince Jim Holsclaw. Escorts Laura Schaible and Cher Gallagher with candidates Justin Wilkey and Jeremy Riddell stood back with Tiffany Ruder as Jeff Fine almost escaped the mob of "well wishers."

Shakespeare's The Tempest Performed

Above: Playing the roles of fairies are April Borders, Renee Brouillard, Jessica Jellison, Misty VanJelgerhuis, Amanda Riddle, Sarah Carver, and Kendra Allen. Right: Boatswain Natalie Lyons speaks with Gonzolo (Kelley Spanton) and Antonio (Josh Morrell).

Below: In the roles of Miranda and Ferdinand, Kate Skirvin and Tony Craney profess their love to one another as she convinces him that they should be married.

Weeks of preparation went into the fall play, The Tempest. The story involves a romantic relationship between Ferdinand (Tony Craney) and Miranda (Kate Skirvin). A number of subplots entered into the play, including Prospero's (Paul Shaffer) attempt to regain his dukedom. Prospero is assisted in this struggle by his spirit Ariel (Janeen Taylor). Jennie Black and Josh Morrell add murder intrigue to the story in the roles of Sebastian and Antonio. The characters of Caliban, Trinculo and Stephano, played by Justin Wilkey, Telly Rogers and Brian Jordan, added some comic relief. Fairies and shipwrecked sailors rounded out the cast.

Costumes by Mrs. Sonja Graf, original music by Nicole Isaacs, and direction by Mrs. Pam Murphy, Ms. Lynne Kinzer and Misty VanJelgerhuis resulted in a better understanding of Shakespeare's writing.

Winter Homecoming Game/Hoops/Funny People/Dance

With the general theme of songs, the four classes' completed hoops are on display before the basketball players make use of the run throughs.

At the winter homecoming game the Quakers defeated the Greenwood Woodmen in an exciting double overtime contest 58-57.

Halftime activities featured the announcement of the RSVP staff's winning sign and the selection of the winning class hoop by the freshmen. Funniest boy and girl contest results were announced. Freshmen contestants were Jesse Buehler, Alex Friedman, Nathan Winegar, Meghan Flaherty, Chante Robertson and Darcie Venezia. The sophomores were Shane Brown, Brandon Clapp, Blake Greene, Carrie Freije, Laura Siddons and Hiley Smallwood. Junior contestants were Josh Epling, Eric Hartman, Darrell Patrick, Tammy Cooper, Jennie Peterson and Lisa Taylor. The class of 93 chose Kyle Carpenter, Jeff Fine, Bob Williams, Michelle Johnson, Kathy Wright, and Libby Yell. The winners were Nathan Winegar, Meghan Flaherty, Shane Brown, Laura Siddons, Eric Hartman, Tammy Cooper, Jeff Fine, and Kathy Wright.

Right: As students enter the Student Council sponsored dance, they pay their money to Laura Schaible and Chad Hannah, both clad in Hawaiian attire. Below: The intensity on the coaches' faces indicates the struggle involved to get the one point victory.

Star Pride

Talent Obvious in Student Acts

Junior Sarah Kasmer performs her dance routine to the music "I Will Find You."

In March the Star Pride Revue featured variety. Band performances were done by Vantage Point, singing "Already Gone," and The End, performing "Off Center." Singers included Tammy Coffey performing "The Greatest Love of All," Misty VanJelgerhuis and Brian Jordan singing "Sometimes Love Just Ain't Enough," and Patty Isley's version of "Forever Friends." Josh Becktel's phantom piano medley preceded Sarah Kasmer's dance routine to "I Will Find You." "Tekkno Trance" was a second dance performance presented by Missi Biggerstaff, Manja Kellerman and Debbie Webster. The finale was a performance by about 20 faculty members with their version of the hit movie Sister Act. Judges awarded first place to The End.

Prom Heaven In Your Eyes Successful

Left: A big part of the prom, picture taking, occupies the time of Cher Gallagher, Sarah Jennison, Libby Yell, Stacy Cross, Jeni Bond, Brett Hesson and Gretchen Hawk. Below: Preparing the tables for the evening's events are Jody Polson, Zach Tharp and Vicki Butterfield.

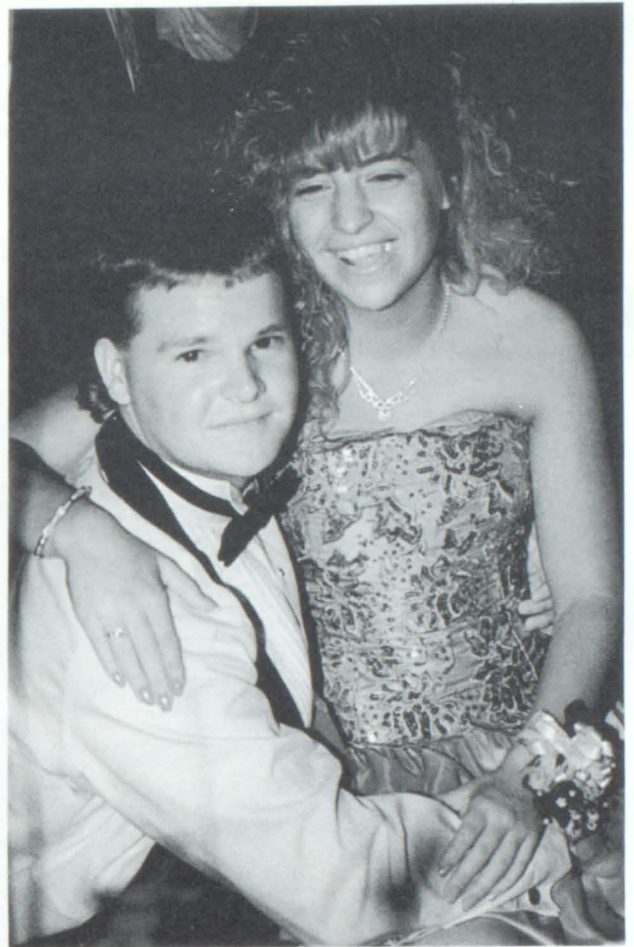

Above: Working to set up the prom are committee members (front) Bree Harbin, Tiffany Ruder, Jeni Bond, Kelly Brackney, Rachael DePasse; (back) Vicki Butterfield, Maria Schkabla, Jody Polson, Sonya Schkabla, Amy Miller, Stacy Stewart, and Zach Tharp.

PROM NIGHT—Friday, April 23, 1993. Junior and senior classes reported poor attendance by the end of the day as prom-goers rushed home to prepare. Flowers, tuxes, cars, hair, nails and pictures were all part of the individual preparation.

As for the prom preparations, an entire year went into the planning beginning with finding a new location. The selection was Primo, a ballroom on the south side of Indy. The theme, the colors and the decorations all were selected during committee meetings. With Danny Masariu as the DJ, Heaven In Your Eyes became a reality with a skyline view of the city, a fountain and black balloons. Holographic stars and memory books provided colorful accents. Photo key chain holders were presented as favors as everyone headed for PHS.

The Carnival of Lights, the 1993 post prom, featured a giant lighted ferris wheel outlined on the gym exterior wall. Balloons lined the ramp and the walk through the gymnastics room to a circus atmosphere in the lobby. Purple, yellow, and red streamers, along with circus animals, a trick mirror and animal cages created the mood.

The gym featured many competitive games—bowling, golf, football toss, softball throw, free throw, shuffleboard and many more—under the big top. Tight rope walkers, clowns, large animals and many lights gave more of the circus impression. A fortune teller reading palms and the ever popular casino occupied students in their pursuit of points to buy prizes or raffle tickets. Prizes were awarded at 3:00 A.M.

Musical

Mikado Features Color and Pageantry

Below: As the Lord High Everything, Paul Helphinstine, accompanied by the nobles of the Mikado's kingdom, sings to Nanki-Poo, played by Steve Hartley.

*Above: The Lord High Executioner (Josh Morrell) talks with Katisha (Jill Harvey) about Nanki-Poo and the Mikado. Right: Pooh-Bah (Paul Helphinstine), Ko-Ko (Josh Morrell), and Pish-Tush (Brian Jordan) perform the song "I Am So Proud" during the first act of The Mikado.*

Left: Yum-Yum, played by Hiley Smallwood, and Nanki-Poo, played by Steve Hartley, share a brief moment alone together. Below: Arriving atop the shoulders of some of his men, the Mikado, portrayed by Parke Lucas, arrives to see about his son Nanki-Poo who has disappeared.

Gilbert and Sullivan's The Mikado was performed April 30 and May 1. Twenty-four musical numbers were performed by 23 talented singers to tell the complicated tale of the love of Yum-Yum and Nanki-Poo. Hiley Smallwood and Steve Hartley portrayed the young couple in love, but Yum-Yum was about to marry Ko-Ko (Josh Morrell) and Nanki-Poo was being pursued by Katisha (Jill Harvey). Other roles included Parke Lucas as the Mikado, Paul Helphinstine was Pooh-Bah, Brian Jordan was Pish-Tush, and Nicole Isaacs and Holly Lowry portrayed Yum-Yum's sisters.

Above: Yum-Yum (Hiley Smallwood), and her sisters Peep-Bo (Nicole Isaacs) and Pitti-Sing (Holly Lowry), sing "Three Little Maids From School Are We" with the chorus of school girls.

Colorful Japanese costumes and sets added to the overall effect. Mr. Peter D. Sims, producer and director, was assisted by choreographer Mr. Jeff Van Paris, technical director Mr. Ken Schnepp, and auditorium director/stage manager Mrs. Pam Murphy. Piano and percussion were performed by Mr. Peter Sims and Mrs. Dana Moreland.

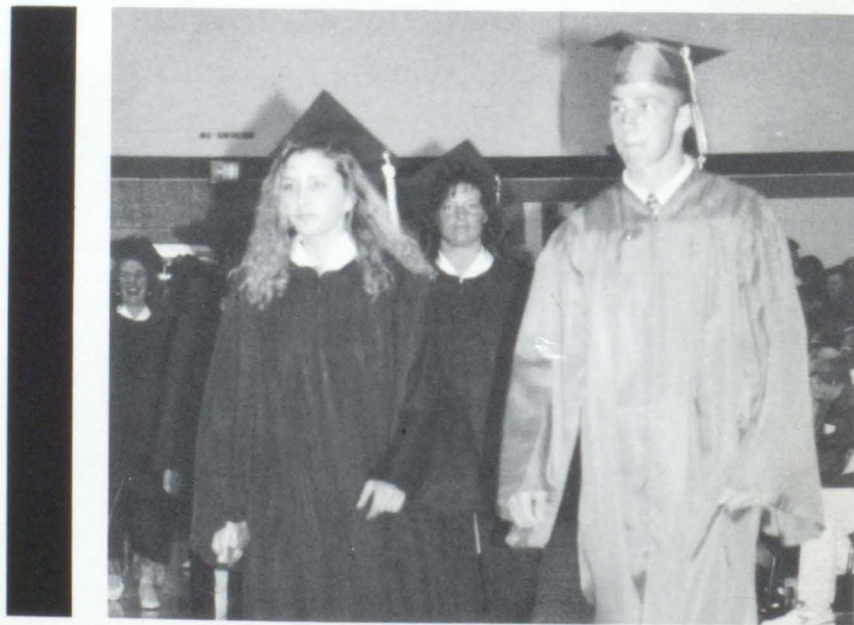

Graduation

Storms Bring Graduation Inside

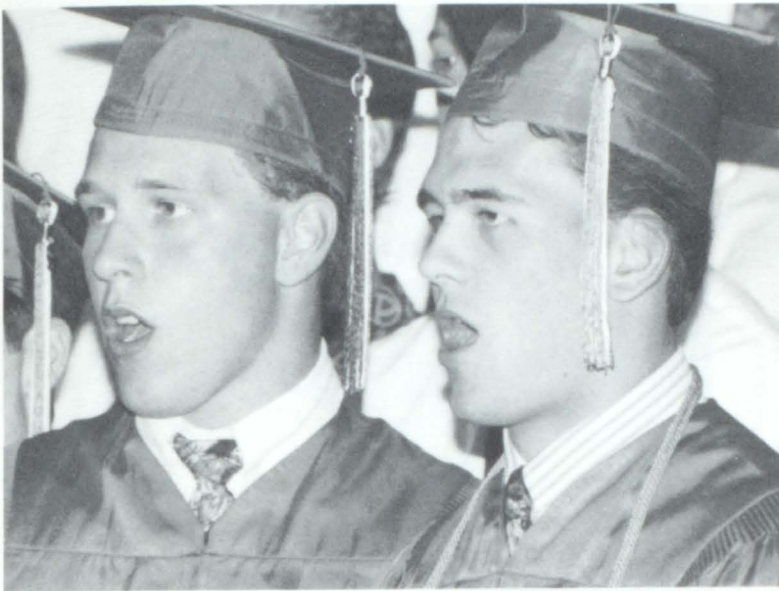

A packed and hot gymnasium was the scene for the red and blue clad seniors to receive those long awaited diplomas on Saturday, May 29.

The traditional "Pomp and Circumstance" was followed by Principal Bill Wakefield's introduction. The salutatory address by Nikki Shore was followed by "Friends," presented by the symphonic band. Co-valedictorians Kristi Edmondson and Jill Helphinstine addressed their classmates. "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" featured the combined efforts of the band and choirs. Remarks by Dr. Jerry Holifield, superintendent, were followed by Mr. Wakefield's presentation of the class and the distribution of the diplomas. Senior class president Laura Schaible led the turning of the tassels and Mr. Wakefield gave the closing remarks.

Below: Sharing the honors as co-valedictorians are Jill Helphinstine and Kristi Edmondson; Nikki Shore holds the honor of salutatorian status.

"Did you want fries with that?"

There's an easier way to get through college.

There was a time when a part-time job could finance a college education. Today, you need the assistance of Bank One. We're one of the largest sources of student loans in the nation, so chances are we'll have a loan that's just right for your needs. So if you're trying to figure out how to pay for college, see us. Our loans come with everything you'll need. Except fries.

Other banks promise personal service. But only one puts it in writing.

Only The Huntington assigns a Personal Banker to each and every checking customer.

And then, we put it in writing. Right there on your monthly statement. So whenever you have a question, need some advice, or simply want to talk over your options, you always have one person to call on.

If this sounds like a better way to bank, stop by The Huntington nearest you and introduce yourself to a Personal Banker.  Huntington Banks The Personal Bankers
