MAKE YOUR OWN ZINE

He was born on December 12, 1915, in Hoboken, New Jersey. The forceps that were used during his birth left their mark on the left side of his face and left him with a cauliflower ear. This, plus acne, caused him to have the nickname of "Scarface" when he was a teenager. He wore elevator shoes to boost his 5'7" stature up a few inches. He had insecurities about his physical appearance.
